The Editor's column

by S. R. PADDOCK

Of course, there are Methodists residing in Mt. Prospect and Prospect Heights as we are reminded by an unsigned postcard we received this week. The writer asked why the same space given Mt. Prospect St. John's Episcopal church in the September 9 issue of the Arlington Heights Herald was not given the Arlington Heights Methodist church in the Mt. Prospect Herald edition of September 2.

We hope our make-up man will find space in this week's issue of the Mt. Prospect Herald for the picture of the proposed Methodist church.

Mrs. Driscoll, assistant superintendent of public schools of Cook county, told us Sunday that with the opening of the new Hanover Countryside school on Bartlett road and the closing of Hoosier Grove, Hilltop and Washington schools, there were no more schools in her territory with "orchard plumbing."

Farmers years ago traded their horses for tractors, their Saturday night washtubs for modern bathrooms. Why should not the country schools be as modern?

Palatine and Arlington Heights experienced last Saturday the biggest shopper's traffic jam in recent months. One shopper shook her fist at a police officer saying, "I do not have to put up with this. I am going to do my future shopping somewhere else."

The officer suggested that she tell it to the editor, who happened to be also in the traffic jam. We could only sympathize with the lady, but we decided to do a little sleuthing, which we did Monday with this result.

The cars of many businessmen are occupying street parking areas. Others are being parked in the Jewel lot. The manager of the A&P has frequently "ordered" cars of businessmen off his lot.

One Arlington Heights businessman has space for a customer parking lot, but he thinks that non-customers and commuters would take it over.

The answer? We don't have it.

Had a talk with an engineer this week regarding efforts of Prospect Heights to solve its drainage troubles by the formation of a drainage district.

There was some discussion at the last meeting of Arlington village board regarding back-up of water into the sewage treatment plant from Weller Creek.

"Drainage problems cannot be solved by piecemeal control methods," said this engineer.

Every additional house being built in the subdivisions is adding to the drainage problem. Under farm conditions, 80 per cent of water goes down into the ground. Subdivision developments overload rivers and drainage ditches.

Our engineer says, "Arlington Heights and Mount Prospect should be equal partners in any Weller Creek project. Prospect Heights will need the help of the Rural Drainage District to really solve its problem."

An engineer told Arlington Heights village board last week that it would be cheaper to bake out motors damaged by flood waters than to attempt to spend the money on Weller Creek, which he said only went wild once in five years.

Some home owners will ask who is going to "bake out" their recreation rooms on the fifth year.

A gal driving a flashy convertible with dark blue top and wire wheels just missed hitting a reporter's car between Mount Prospect and Arlington early this week. The reporter, who also has a speedy car, started out after the gal, who hit 70 clearing through Arlington and was doing 100 when she passed the race track.

The reporter decided that he did not want the gal to further endanger her life, and he dropped out of the race. To crown it all, he threw the license memorandum he had taken into the waste basket. Some reporter!

We heard a Republican precinct worker make this comment this week, "We Republicans have nothing to fear about the Chicago Democrats who move out into the country. After a few breaths of the clean air we have out here, they are so thankful that they forget the politics of the crowded city and become Republicans."

We did not dispute the party worker, but overconfidence may mean a party job half done and a Democratic victory in November.

President Erickson told a Republican audience at Palatine Tuesday night that if the suburban towns increase their Republican votes by 50,000, not a single Democratic candidate in Cook county will be elected in November.

The audience assured the president of the county board that the job would be done.

Rezoning Meets Little Opposition

Cook county Zoning Board held three hearings Friday. Representing that body were Russel B. James, chairman, Richard L. Weldon and Walter Popjoy.

Their first stop was at Mount Prospect at 5 p.m. when the petition of John G. Garlish of Higgins road, was represented by Attorney Aribert Wild. Garlisch has conducted a farm implement business on his property many years. He desires to broaden his operations. He intends to erect a building 66x100 for the purpose of servicing farm implements and as a showroom.

Neighbors and County Commissioner Wm. Busse all testified that in their opinion the business operated by Garlisch was needed and was an important service to the surrounding farming community. There were no dissenters.

STOP NO. 2 was at Arlington Heights village hall to consider the petition of Nick Funk, purchaser of a tract of land south of Rand Tower, lying between Route 83 and Rand road. The property is being sold by Mr. Carlander of Skokie.

Funk desires to erect a $100,000 building to be used as a service station, garage and display room for new cars for which he expects to become a subdealer.

Roy LaLonde, Palatine realtor, testified at the Mount Prospect and Arlington hearing as an expert in the best uses of land situated as the tracts under consideration.

Funk plans to have a showroom face Rand. Space for parking of used cars will be screened by a fence and shrubbery.

While a number of persons in that area spoke in favor of the granting of the petition, two Mount Prospect residents of that area spoke against the rezoning. They were: H. F. Zartl, 509 N. Main st., and H. Heinrichs, 506 N. Maple st.

Raymond L. Weller, trustee of Mount Prospect called the attention of the zoning board to the fact that a large subdivision directly west of the tract under consideration was seeking approval of the plan commission. The village was given until September 24 to present any facts it desired to the zoning board.

ARLINGTON HEIGHTS and Palatine were both represented at the third hearing held at the Palatine village hall in response to a petition of Howard Gray of Oak Park who seeks zoning to enable him to conduct a nursery business and garden store.

The tract, comprising four fifty foot lots faces Northwest highway 400 feet west of Wilke road. Gray is planning to erect a building 24x48 feet of cement block with lannon stone front.

C. M. Behrens testified as a realty expert as to best use of property. Raymond J. Carrol owner of nearest residence, spoke in favor of the petition.

J. Stengel, president of Arlington Crest Property Owners association said that the group he represented would have no objection if motels, trailer park and garage were prohibited under a land covenent.

Attorney Thal and E. P. Steinbrinck, Palatine village clerk said that their boards would have no objection to the rezoning if such a covenent was placed on the property.

Registration For Night School Starts Monday

Registration for Arlington Heights high school's adult evening division opens Monday at 7 p.m. in the high school.

Members of the night school staff will be present to assist adults in selecting courses and registering.

Registration, which closes September 22, may be made by mail through September 25. Sixty-two classes are scheduled for the fall term, including courses for six weeks as well as 10 weeks. The 15-week high school credit courses, which are being offered for the first time this year, meet two nights a week and provide one unit of credit toward a high school diploma.

Evening school folders are now in the mail and may be secured at the high school office.

A Busy Night

The Arlington Heights building committee had a busy time Tuesday night.

They placed their okay on 24 new homes, 14 of which were for private owners.

Future High School Pupils Study Reveals Alarming Figures

Figures given in the report of the enrollment committee of the Lay Committee studying Arlington Heights high school needs will be published next week. They are based on:

First, a stoppage of all new building or population increase which would mean 3,120 high school pupils by 1962 comprising only those pupils now in local schools.

Second, a continuation of present enrollment growth based on increases since 1950, which place 1962 enrollment at 4,179 "very conservative," says the committee.

Lay Committee Expects To Present Final Report Oct. 15

The Citizen's Lay Advisory committee of Township High School District 214, Arlington Heights, indicated at its September 9 meeting that committee recommendations to the high school board may be completed as early as mid-October.

Mrs. Nat Burfeind presented the final report of the sub-committee studying shift and modified shift programs. As committee chairman Mrs. Burfeind read an exhaustive report covering the many aspects of shift systems as employed in other schools and the possible application of such a system locally. The portion of the report containing committee recommendations positively opposed the adoption of any form of shift system. The report was unanimously accepted by the entire Lay committee and had been signed by all members of Mrs. Burfeind's group.

Several final sub-committee reports have been submitted in earlier general meetings. It is expected that all sub-committees will file reports at the September 23 meeting of the committee of the whole.

Committee members feel that one or two meetings in addition to the September 23 meeting will be sufficient for the preparation of overall final recommendations to the high school board.

Poetsch, Barrington; Earle McGowan, formerly of Barrington; Juan Duran, Palatine; and Frederic Pfingsten, Roselle.

Methodist Fund Drive Over $100,000

The First Methodist church's "Forward in Faith" campaign has crossed the $100,000 mark in its march toward a goal of $150,000.

The fourth report meeting for workers was held last night, with two more meetings scheduled for tonight and Friday. A total of $91,721 was subscribed by Monday night, and campaign leaders expressed confidence that the remainder of the goal would be fulfilled.

The campaign in Arlington Heights and Mount Prospect is for funds to build the Sunday school and Fellowship hall units of the $325,000 master plan development on a new 10 acre site in Arlington Heights on E. Euclid ave., one mile east of State rd.

Eighty couples canvassing the two communities are organized into four divisions, which make up the team organization and a special gifts committee. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Barbour, campaign vice chairmen, direct team organization.

Standings of the four divisions are: Mr. and Mrs. Earle Johnston's "Giants," $13,201; James Jirak's "Dodgers," $13,439; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Nunes "Yanks," $8,227; and Mr. and Mrs. John Boehner's "Indians," $14,808.

A special gifts committee, under the chairmanship of Marvin Prellberg and Evrell Plank, have reported $41,850.

Last Sunday the primary, junior and intermediate Sunday school departments presented $197, the results of their "Earn and Give" week.

General chairman of the "Forward in Faith" drive is Arthur Dahl is pastor of the church. N. Trever, and the Rev. Birger

Ask Business Zoning At Algonquin And Rohlwing Roads

The County Board voted Tuesday to refer to the county Zoning Board of Appals a request from Louis H. Haberkamp, of Palatine, for the rezoning from a farming to a business district of one acre on the southwest corner of Algonquin and Rohlwing roads in Elk Grove Township.

The zoning board will hold a public hearing on the rezoning request and then submit a recommendation to the County Board which will take final action.

Firemen Control Arlington Barn Fire

Firemen were summoned Tuesday at 3 p.m. to extinguish a small roof fire in a barn located at 203 N. Evergreen, Arlington Heights. Damage was slight and fire department workers quickly brought it under control.

Development of Prospect Heights Continues at a Record Pace

There is a lot of difference between Prospect Heights 18 years ago and the young city-sized community that bears that name today. The person who is largely responsible for the growth that area has experienced is Carlton A. Smith, whom a reporter visited this week.

Realizing that many people are asking what is happening in Prospect Heights, which can claim to being the first shopping center of the northwest towns, Smith would rather tell about his plans for the future than to recall the headaches and heartaches he and other "pioneers" experienced in the early days of the community.

"I built the first house in Prospect Heights in 1936," he said. "Seven children attended school in a 20 ft. by 24 ft. red brick schoolhouse with a pot-bellied stove."

Now Smith's Prospect Heights boasts of an ultra-modern school with an enrollment in excess of 400 and a thousand homes serviced by a shopping center with 24 different businesses and future plans under way for even more expansion.

Three stores completed during the summer bring to a total of six the number of new businesses opened in the shopping center at Elmhurst and McDonald rds. during the past six months.

They include a beauty shop, physician, dentist, contractor, clinical laboratory, and a women's sportswear shop to be opened in the near future.

Smith and Dawson real estate recently moved into new offices more then twice the size of their previous headquarters.

A new wing to the medical building is being planned for spring construction.

And proposed for the future is a mammoth drive-in shopping center to be built on the south east corner with double-front stores facing a giant parking lot.

Building progress?

Plans are underway to subdivide the Old Orchard golf club for 500 new homes.

"At present there are 600 homes under construction in Prospect Heights," explained Smith. "Six different contractors are devoting ful' time to building here."

He proudly refers to Prospect Heights as one of Chicago's fastest growing shopping and residential communities.

And Smith foresees even greater business growth for the future.

"Why not," he said, with a twinkle in his eye. "We have free parking for 700 cars."

Village Manager Saves Thousands For Taxpayers

Although Robert Buechner, the new village manager, has only been on the job three months he has already effected savings which will more than pay his salary and expenses, and yet provide the taxpayers with services and protection they have not been getting, and in other cases more work with less expense on services already in force.

Mr. Buechner, through the purchase of a sewer cleaning machine will save taxpayers thousands of dollars annually and eliminate the cause of many flooded basements.

He is bearing down on sub-dividers and contractors to make them meet their contracts so tax payers do not foot the bill later.

He has installed up to date bookkeeping machinery to eliminate pencil entries and costly errors, and has made many other savings and recommendations which mean savings in taxes to the Arlington Heights taxpayers.

A business like method and plan for systematically rodding and cleaning sewers has never been set up. The result has been thousands of dollars loss in private property and pannelled basements through flooding, caused in many cases by clogged, backed up sewers.

Growth of three roots in sewers has caused damage to the sewer system and in some instances cracked sewers so badly they had to be replaced at great expense.

ONE OF THE FIRST things Mr. Buechner did was to recommend the purchase of a sewer rodder and bucketing machine to rod and clean sewers. This machine cost $7,500.00 and takes two men to operate. In the past any sewer rodding done in Arlington Heights was done by a firm which had a minimum charge of $300.00. In 1953 and 1954 alone we paid this firm over $15,000.00 for rodding sewers.

This same work can now be done for less than $2,000.00 with the use of the rodding machine. Last fall it was necessary to spend $6,500.00 to clean grit out of the main sewer into the sewage treatment plant and this job now needs doing again, and apparently may have to be done annually. However, now instead of costing you $6,500.00 it will cost less than $700.00, plus a portion of the investment in the machine which should last ten years.

In addition to saving money, a regular preventive maintenance program is being set up at very low cost, which will be done during the summer with help from high school boys.

This will mean your village sewers and drains will be cleaned regularly on a systematic basis before damage is done to the village sewer system, thus saving taxpayers thousands of dollars in damages to the sewer and homes and basements.

A COMPREHENSIVE study of the overall sewer system of Arlington Heights is now being made by the engineers to ascertain a long range program to meet future needs of Arlington Heights. The results will be made known to the public when completed.

Contractors and developers not living up to requirements have been costing the village money. Mr. Buechner is now bearing down on them to lessen or eliminate errors by contractors which may result in future expense to taxpayers.

When Mr. Buechner arrived in Arlington Heights he found pencil bookkeeping entries being made. He promptly requested authorization to purchase a new bookkeeping machine, which the board approved. In the future entries will be made faster and more accurately without the need for additional help to meet the growing community requirements.

These are only three of hundreds of problems Mr. Buechner is working with weekly to save taxpayers money, and yet provide better and business like service.

If any taxpayer has any problem of the village needing attention or correction, please contact Mr. Buechner on the second floor of the village hall at CLearbrook 3-2340 or CLearbrook 3-8601.

New School Crossing Protection At Euclid

The Arlington Heights police department has placed a patrolman on special duty at Euclid and Northwest hwy. from 7 to 8 p.m.

The action was taken after complaints were voiced that students residing in the southwest section of the village were walking up Ridge ave. and crossing the C&NW railroad tracks on their way to school. Speeding trains and heavy highway traffic created a serious hazard for the children.

These pupils may now cross the highway at Euclid with the policeman on duty to halt traffic.

65,500 At Arlington Pool In 1954

Arlington Heights had the largest "Learn to Swim" program in Illinois, according to American Red Cross estimates released this week by the park district.

Total registration for the program was 1,207 with an average daily attendance of 332 youngsters.

Total admissions to the pool for the summer, excluding morning swim classes, was 65,543 with a daily average of 800.

Attendance figures in the instruction classes for the past four years show steady growth for the park district's program. The most important of these is the "tadpole" class. These students started as non-swimmers and have learned to swim a minimum distance of 75 ft.

Here is a breakdown of class advancements:

Class	1951	1954
Tadpoles	160	294
Minnows	163	224
Fish	82	179
Flying Fish	24	129
Sharks	4	53
Swim Club	0	41
Junior Life Saving	7	7
Senior Life Saving	1	14

Businessmen Invade Jewel Parking Lot

The Jewel Tea co.'s customer parking lot at 11 S. Dunton st., Arlington Heights, is rapidly becoming a "municipal" parking lot.

According to a survey conducted Monday at 9:30 a.m., the lot—with a capacity for 38 cars—provided day-long parking facilities for four businessmen, two residents of the block, and even seven employees of the store.

Thirteen shoppers were denied parking privileges as a result of these permanent parkers. Jewel employees are prohibited from using the lot on Thursday, Friday, and Saturday.

A survey of city tags revealed that there were 18 cars from Arlington Heights, two from Palatine twp., one from Palatine, two from Rolling Meadows, one from Prospect Heights, and seven with no stickers parked in the food store's lot. Nine shoppers didn't park their cars in the lot.

At 9:30 there was enough space for seven more cars in the lot.

Employees of the A & P Food Store, 214 W. Cambell, are forced to use the customer parking lot, according to the store manager. He explained that city parking limitations make it impossible for employees to park elsewhere.

The store lot, which accomodates 38 cars, is used only by customers and employees. The area is checked frequently to make sure neighborhood residents or businessmen do not use the lot for day-long parking.

At Safety Meeting

State Police Judge C. M. Behrens of Arlington Heights will join other county and municipal judges September 23 for a meeting of the Cook County Traffic Safety commission.

Voters' Registration Ends Saturday at Clerk's Offices

Voting machines will be used for the first time November 2 in Wheeling, Palatine, Elk Grove, Schaumburg and Hanover townships. Communities using the machines will include Palatine, Rolling Meadows, Arlington Heights, Mount Prospect, Prospect Heights, and Wheeling.

These machines are different from the ones used in Chicago. The type to be installed here have an exact replica of the candidates' names as they appear on the ballot.

It is expected that the installation of mechanized voting will enable election officials to complete their tabulations within 30 minutes after the polls are closed.

Two voting machines will be placed in precincts with more than 500 voters, and smaller districts will have one machine.

After October 15, demonstrator machines will be placed in village halls for voters to see and learn the operation.

Because of the boundaries of the sanitary district, there are four precincts in Wheeling township that will still use the hand ballot. The four include: 4th precinct, polls at 305 W. Campbell, Arlington Heights; 11th, polls in St. Mary's gymnasium at Central and River rds.; 17th, at Foundry and Rand rds.; and the 18th, at Central and Northwest hwy.

Because of the great increase in population of the country towns, it is more important than ever that all voters register for the November 2 election.

Registrations will be accepted at all village and town clerk offices until Saturday. The only other opportunity for registration will be on October 5, when all precinct polling places will be open from 8 a.m. to 9 p.m. Even numbered districts will have two Republicans and one Democrat present, while odd numbered districts will have two Democrats and one Republican.

All registered voters are supposed to receive a "verification of voter's registration" card from the county clerk's office. Residents who do not receive their cards should check their registration, or else they may not be able to vote. Election officials at the county clerk's office said they would not allow any voting by affidavit this fall.

Four Palatine precincts have announced new locations for the polls. The changes are:

4th—from Bedurske Corner to Sunset Turkey Farmon Rt. 53;

9th—(Palanois Park) now at Dean and Peters real estate office; and 10—From schoolhouse on Quintens rd. to Radio Farm real estate office on Northwest hwy.

One Dead, 13 Hurt In Weekend Accidents

Thirteen persons were injured and one killed in two accidents this weekend.

Roman N. Schmidt, 46, of Chicago died Monday in St. Joseph's hospital, Elgin, of injuries suffered in a two-car collision Sunday at Rt. 58 and Barrington rd. Critically injured were Schmidt's wife, Estelle, 40, and his mother, Margaret, 78, as well as his son, David 18 months. Another passenger in the car was also hurt.

Three persons in the second car, all of whom are still confined to St. Joseph's hospital, are: Edward Jurkowski, 39, Mrs. Estelle Pick, 34.and her daughter, Gloria, 11. All are from Chicago.

Six persons were injured in an accident at State and Palatine rds. Saturday at 7:30 p.m.

Senon G. Cardona, 34, of Rt. 2, Buffalo Grove rd., told county police that he was driving south on State rd. near Palatine rd. when a car driven by Stephen A. Erst, 66, of 1254 Arthur Ave., Chicago, ran through the stop sign. Erst, who is still confined to St. Francis hospital, Evanston, was unable to give police a statement.

Injured persons, all of whom were taken to St. Francis, were: Senon Cardona; Flora Rodriguez, 15, Colecta Rodriguez, 19, Olga Sepulzata, 16, Stephen Erst; and Mrs. Erst. Only Mrs. Erst has been released from the hospital.

Wreckage from both accidents was taken to the Arlington Fender and Body shop.

Local Insurance Brokers Cooperate In Service To School Board

At a recent school board meeting of district 25, the insurance consultants presented the board with a complete analysis and survey of the insurance requirements for local grade schools Also, an analysis of the student accident insurance has been presented and accepted.

Since then an inspection of the fire rate schedule has been made at the Cook county Inspection Bureau. The school board can now appraise their insurable exposures, both from the physical and liability viewpoints, and are in a position to evaluate the needs. The survey was presented at no cost to the school district.

The Association of Insurance Consultants was organized by local brokers, to give professional service to the community or to any group or individual desiring the service.

Forest View School Patrons Get 'Once Over' of New Building

The board of directors, school pupils, District 56 Mothers' club and patrons of the district who took the opportunity to look over the new school addition at an open house Sunday afternoon are rather proud of their school plant.

It is well designed, modern in every way and so constructed that it can be the nucleus of a larger building. The cost, including additional site, a heating plant for the present and future, totaled $67,000.

The board members are keeping their fingers crossed awaiting word regarding the intentions of the U. S. army, which reports say will take over the airport and the quarters in which two rooms are being operated. Such action would mean that school room facilities at the present school would necessarily have to be doubled. The school board is hoping that in such an eventuality, the government will come across with some money.

That is all in the future. For the present the district, with only 52 children in the new school is only required to have two teachers on the job there in addition to the two at the airport school where there is an enrollment of 63.

Grades 1 to 8 are conducted at both places. Richard Williuweit is principal at both schools. He teaches grades 4 to 8 at State rd. Mrs. Conklin has grades 1-3. Teachers at the airport school are Carl Bailey and Ruth Lawson.

The new school, which is attached to the original school which remains as a future classroom, comprises two rooms, both on the east side of the hall. Opposite are the health room, principal's office and sanitary facilities. The lobby, between the old and new building, will also serve as entrance to any additions that may be built to the east.

The lower part of the classroom walls is of glazed tile. All furniture was furnished by Arlington Seating Co. The architect was James Viger; the contractor, Keno Const. Co. The Mothers' club has provided a projector and also a scale in the health room. There is a complete health program, especially assured because two of the mothers are former nurses. Fifteen months were required for the construction.

The district has 375 families and a population a little less than 1,000. Board of directors are: Wm. G. Grismer, president; Mrs. Hutchings, secretary; Walter Sundblad, member. They were all on hand Sunday afternoon to provide personally conducted tours, which ended in the old building where the ladies had thoughtfully provided coffee and cake.

Rev. Saul To Open Fall Season For Presbyterian Men

REV. STUART C. SAUL

Rev. Stuart C. Saul, associate minister of First Presbyterian church of Arlington Heights, will open the fall season for the local chapter of Presbyterian men Monday at 8 p.m. in the church chapel. With The Blue Birds

WITH THE BLUE BIRDS STAND

Arlington Heights blue birds from Mrs. Louis M. Schomburg's group participated in the camp fire-blue bird leader-girl picnic held last Thursday at Lions Park, Mount Prospect.

Although a soft rain fell periodically, it didn't dampen the spirits of 200 girls and leaders who enjoyed the early evening hours with cooking hamburgers and hot dogs over the charcoal fires. Games, singing, folk dancing and the joys of roasting marshmallows made the annual picnic a day to long remember.

The girls now look forward to the father-daughter cookout to be held Saturday, September 25 at Shelter "D" in Deer Grove. Girls and their dads will meet at the Central school, Mount Prospect, at 4 p.m. and then proceed to the grove.

A meeting for all new and prospective blue birds has been scheduled for Saturday, September 18 at 9 a.m. at the home of Mrs. Schomburg, 305 S. Evergreen, Arlington Heights. Girls seven, eight, or nine years old, who are interested in the Camp Fire-Blue Bird program are invited to attend.

Ray Boeger, who hears frequently from his mother, Mrs. Ella Boeger of Los Angeles, says that when the Herald arrives at her home, there is frequently an old time Arlington Heights kaffee klatsch at which time the news stories in the paper are discussed backwards and forwards.

"I hardly get time to read the Herald myself before some of my former Arlington neighbors ask to borrow it. I am glad to pass it around," says Mrs. Boeger.

"The subscription price of the Herald sent to me in Los Angeles is $5 per year, but it is doing triple duty every week," Mrs. Boeger says. "It is our only contact with the old home town for many of us."

This Week with PTA

All those who participated in last year's Round Robin bridge, whether or not they won prizes, agree that the friendships they made and the pleasure they derived make this monthly event one that should not be missed. The deadline for signing up is Sept. 22, and newcomers as well as "oldtimers" are urged to call Mrs. Raymond Driscoll, chairman, at CL. 3-5314. A nominal charge of fifty cents per person at the time of registration and fifty cents per person each month is requested. If you plan to attend the September meeting of your PTA, a table will be provided where you may sign up at that time. This is a fine opportunity to help the PTA treasury and perhaps win a prize at the same time.

Dates for the September meetings of the various PTA groups have been set. Because of the great increase in enrollment in our schools, and the difficulty of providing a suitable place to accommodate the entire membership of the Parent-Tetcher association, individual meetings will be held this year at each school, and in some cases, even these meetings will be divided. The schedule is as follows:

Junior high school: 6th grade parents meet Thursday, Sept. 23. 7th and 8th grade parents meet Tuesday, Sept. 28.

New South School: Tuesday, Sept. 21 at 8:15 p. m. in the junior high school cafeteria.

Ridge School: Parents of morning session children meet Sept. 21, 8:15 p. m. Parents of afternoon session children meet Sept. 22, 8:15 p. m.

Dryden School: Tuesday, Sept. 21, 8:15 p. m.

North School: Tuesday, Sept. 21, 8:15 p. m.

In all schools, the September meeting will be devoted to introducing the teaching staff and school officials, and laying the groundwork for another successful, cooperative school year. You will also have an opportunity at this meeting to subscribe to the National Parent-Teacher magazine, an invaluable help to the parent of a school-age child.

As in the past, the Parent-Teacher Association and the Arlington Heights Police department will cooperate to provide free bicycle inspection to all students riding their bikes to school. Now is the time to bring brakes, wheels, signals, and lights into top condition to pass the test. Remember, village licenses are issued only on receipt of a satisfactory certificate. Sgt. Oscar Johnson will conduct the inspection, and the PTA will provide reflective tape to safeguard bicycle riders. The dates are:

Ridge School: Morning session, 8:30 a. m., Sept. 27. Afternoon session, 1:00 p. m., Sept. 27.

South School: Morning session, 10:00 a. m., Sept. 27. Afternoon session, 3:00 p. m., Sept. 27.

Dryden School: Tuesday morning, Sept. 28.

North School: Wednesday morning, Sept. 29.

Jr. High School: Tuesday afternoon, Sept. 28.

Perhaps you know someone who is hesitant about revealing his or her talent; in this case it's considered permissible to "snitch."

this is CRAZE

You have three posts and ten discs of various sizes. You start with the 10 discs on one post, and end up with all of them on either of the other two posts. Simple? Not under the rules. Once you solve it, you don't know how you did it. You'll have to solve it again and again until you learn the secret. Then it's more fun and relaxation than ever.

From the Police Blotter . . .

Mr. D. Yeast, 1314 W. Elm, reported to Arlington Heights police Saturday that two boys threw stones at his car as he was driving on Northwest highway. One of the rocks smashed the right windshield. Parents of the youths agreed to pay for damages.

Chester J. Giuliana, 303 N. Pine, requested police to patrol the neighborhood of 1314 Watling rd., where he is building a new house. He told officials that vandals entered the house Friday and smashed pieces of rock lath.

Three persons were slightly injured Sunday at 5:45 p.m. in an accident at Northwest highway and Vail ave. in Arlington Heights. Driver of the cars were Carl Baumgarten, 67, of 894 Graceland ave., Des Plaines, and Adolph D. Rosenberg, 58, of 1614 Granville, Chicago.

Rosenberg had stopped for a traffic light when Baumgarten collided with the rear end of the parked car.

Injured were Baumgarten, a cut lip; Doris Rosenberg, 56, injury of right small finger; and Lanie Walker, 27, of 20 N. Elmwood, Palatine, who hurt his right elbow and hand.

No one was hospitalized.

An error in last week's Arlington Heights Herald stated that Kenneth Kennedy, 511 S. Pine st., rammed the side of an auto driven by Onesimo Duram Rodreguez of South Holland, Ill. According to Mr. Kennedy, it was Mr. Rodreguez who struck the right side of the Kennedy auto.

Here's Scouting

With Explorer Scout Bill Hogate

Fathers of Scouts in Troop 7, Arlington Heights, will pack duffels along with their sons and head for Twin Lakes, Wis., this weekend for the 1954 Fall Fisheree.

The first tent will be pitched by 10 a.m. Saturday. Officiating at this outing will be William J. Plambeck and Albert X Wendt, scout leaders.

There will be a Scout contest for the largest fish caught, and a trophy presented to the winning boy or boys.

Raleigh and Jo's resort in Twin Lakes is cooperating with Troop 7 in making this year's Fisheree possible.

Last week marked the opening of the official Boy Scout paper pick-up in Arlington Heights. Last week's collection was on the north side, and this Saturday the boys will make pick-ups on the south side. They will take old newspapers, magazines, catalogs, and other miscellaneous paper material placed on curbs. The drive continues through the first and second weeks of each month during the school year.

Barington High School District Scores Again

As the result of a public hearing held recently in Waukegan the Barrington high school district has annexed 1½ square miles of former Crystal Lake high school territory, an assessed valuation of $650,000 and six high school students, who will bring them an assessed valuation of $108,000 per student.

The territory annexed is east of Fox River Grove and is now in the Barrington elementary school district.

Savings And Loan Idea Dates Way Back

The tremendous progress of savings and loan associations, particularly in the last two decades, has been phenomenal according to John P. Domeier, president and chairman of the board of fast growing Oak Park Federal Savings and Loan association.

He pointed out that throughout this country total resources of these mutual institutions had risen, during the past 20 years, to more than 26 billions of dollars.

It is known Savings and Laon associations in this country started in Pennsylvania in 1831, more than 122 years ago, and in Birmingham, England, as early as 1781, Domeier pointed out.

It is amazing to learn of the existence and popularity of the savings and loan idea in antiquity, even when the Chinese people of the day were using shell and silk as a medium of exchange.

The mutual financing associations of "Ho-Hui" were used as a very important means for people of the middle and lower classes to raise liquid funds and were very well known in the Ch'ing period (1644-1912) and Mr. Domeier pointed out their history can definitely be traced back to the T'ang dynasty (618-907).

These historical facts are incorporated in a copyrighted advertisement to be released soon.

August Home Building Holds Steady Pace

Where building was heading has been problematical, as the July all building totals showed a slump from June in the suburban towns and in all counties but DuPage, while Chicago advanced only a little. Home building also was down in Chicago, the suburban towns and in all but DuPage county.

August put the brakes on this slide—by increasing building in Chicago and the suburban towns; and by housing gains of 887 units (homes and apartments) over July, of which 257 units are in Chicago, 421 in the suburban towns and 208 in the unincorporated areas. All building for the eight months of this year is $32,000,000 ahead of last year and housing 3,294 units ahead.

So after a meteorologically miserable summer, discouraging to all activity, it seems that an eagerness to resume building is in the air. This is clearly indicated in all analyses of the August returns. Chicago's all building total for eight months—$147,941,630—is $6,640,570 behind last year.

THE SUBURBAN town record is one of reasonably steady progress throughout the year. The towns thus far are more than $30,000,000 ahead of 1953. Their August total of $45,118,635 exceeds August 1953 by $10,324,779 and is $4,212,585 more than the July 1954 total.

In the suburban towns the home record excites great optimism. Permits thus far exceed last year's by 1,718, while the August reports total 519 more homes than in August a year ago, 422 more than in July of this year. Home building in the unincorporated areas also presents a desirable picture — 1,332 homes ahead of last year and a total of 990 homes in August—364 more homes than a year ago; 209 more than in July.

Dedication Ceremonies At Bensenville Home For Aged This Sunday

The Bensenville Home for aged and children will greet thousands of visitors Sunday, Sept. 19, in the observance of its annual festival to be highlighted with dedication ceremonies for the new home for old people.

MANY RESIDENTS in this vicinity will be among the hundreds of volunteers who will man the various booths and serve on the committees that are necessary to make the day a joyous, successful one for the old folks and youngsters cared for by the 59-year-old institution, which is supported by Evangelical and Reformed churches in this area.

A pony ring for child festival guests, and colorful balloon races throughout the afternoon and early evening are among the special attractions that have been planned for the visitors.

FESTIVAL PROGRAM will get under way when the new building basement rooms are opened for the serving of buffet dinners from 12 noon until 6 p.m. The spacious rooms in the new home will accommodate 500 persons at one time. The gaily-trimmed outdoor stands also will open at 12 noon, and from them will be sold all kinds of candies, ice cream, pop, sandwiches and coffee.

A new country fair booth will feature fresh fruits and vegetables for sale. Many exquisite pieces of fancy work will be on display in a booth sponsored by the Ladies Service committee, an auxiliary organization of the home.

SPECIAL SERVICES will begin at 3 p.m. with a dedication message by Dr. Robert C. Stanger, vice president of the Evangelical and Reformed Church and Pastor of Bethany church, Chicago. President of the home board of directors, Rev. Glenn G. Gumm of Palatine, will be in charge of the service, assisted by members of the board of directors, the architect and the contractor.

The service will be held at the front entrance of the new aged unit. A children's chorus will be heard. Mrs. Myrtle Ackmann of Bensenville will serve as accompanist for the dedicatory services.

Following the ceremony of the keys, superintendent of the home, Rev. Alvin J. Munsterman, will open the front door and invite the festival visitors to see the new building. Hostesses will be stationed in the various departments to explain the many services and facilities which are available in the new home.

THE CROSS-SHAPED structure of brick and lannon stone will accommodate 42 residents: 14 beds in the infirmary for the bedfast, 14 beds for the roomfast, and 14 for those able to care for themselves.

Near the main entrance is the office, matron's room, social worker's room, doctor's treatment room, living room, reception room and television room. The living room also will serve as a chapel; one wall will have paneled doors which will reveal an altar when opened.

The kitchen, dining room and goods receiving room are also on the main floor. Each wing of the new home was a glazed, heated porch. Signal lights from each room can be seen from the nurses' station, and nursing care will be provided 24 hours a day.

EACH ROOM has ample electrical outlets including television connection with a master aerial. The large windows are 28" above the floor, and colorful draperies will be used to control the sunlight and afford privacy. There are easily operated openings in the windows, and an outside protection of 30 - 36" extends over and beyond the windows.

Each room has individual clothes closets, wash bowl and two medicine cabinets. Toilet facilities serve two rooms, and the doors operate electrically. Recessed night lights have been installed in the hallways, with handrails along both sides of the hall.

In the basement are leisure time activity rooms, social room, small laundry, dentist's office, and a barber shop, which is being equipped through the generosity of the Bensenville Lions club. All residents will have individual locker rooms for storage, with a central storeroom serving the whole campus. The basement is connected with the first floor by an elevator.

Libertyville Officials Approve Sale Of Beer At Jewel Tea Store

The Jewel Tea co. this week won their fight to sell beer in the new Libertyville super market. Village officials gave their approval at the September 6 meeting of the village board.

The license was granted under an interpretation of Ordinance 737, a liquor control ordinance passed February 1, 1949, which states the village board "shall authorize the retail sale on the premises specified of beer and no other alcholic liquor, for consumption of such beer on the premises as well as other retail sales of beer."

Jewel representatives had made their original application June 1.

Stricter provisions of the new Illinois Securities Law and vigorous enforcement of those provisions have resulted in administrative proceedings being taken against 129 companies who proposed to offer more than $38,000,000 in securities for sale in Illinois.

Of the total, actions against only 36 of the issuers, whose securities were valued at a little more than $5,000,000, were dismissed.

South Africa Youth Representative To Speak Here Sunday

Leon Malan, World Council youth representative from South Africa, will be speaker Sunday at the 10:45 a.m. services at the Arlington Heights Methodist church. Mr. Malan, from Pretoria, capital of the union of South Africa, is remaining in the United States to complete studies for a doctorate degree in psychology at University of Chicago.

Mary Ann Storm Weds Arnold Hildebrandt

Friends and relatives of Arnold H. Hildebrandt traveled to Manistee, Mich., for his marriage to Miss Mary Ann Storm September 4. Trinity Lutheran church, Manistee, was the scene of the four o'clock ceremony during which the groom, son of Mrs. Bertha S. Hildebrandt, 910 N. Chestnut ave., Arlington Heights, took Miss Storm, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred W. Storm, Manistee, as his bride.

Palms and baskets of gladioli formed the background for the double ring ceremony. Mr. Storm gave his daughter in marriage and Rev. R. Coellner and Rev. Hessler jointly presided in the service.

For her marriage, the bride chose a traditional gown of hand clipped Chantilly lace combined with satin. A full circular skirt swept into a chapel train and a tapered crown of rhinestones and pearls held her fingertip veil in place. The veil was edged with self scalloped lace to match the lace bodice of her gown. She carried a white satin Bible with white carnations and an orchid.

Mrs. Dorothy Briske served as her sister's matron of honor wearing a mauve gown of taffeta and net, fashioned with hooped skirt with appliques of rosebuds on the skirt and at the scooped neckline of the bodice. She carried a heart-shaped bouquet of yellow gladioli and wore a rhinestone necklace, a gift from the bride. Mrs. Delores Burns served as bridesmaid, wearing a gown identical to Mrs. Briske's gown and June Storm, cousin of the bride, served as junior bridesmaid. June wore a green puckered nylon gown and carried orchids in a heart shaped bouquet.

The groom's brother, W. J. Hildebrandt, Manistee, served as best man and ushers were Ronald Kaste, Chicago, Gustav Storm, Wilfred Battige and Leonard Briske, all of Manistee.

Dinner was served to 150 guests in the school auditorium after which Mr. Hildebrandt and his bride left on a wedding trip to northern Michigan. The couple are now at home in Arlington Heights. The groom, a 4-year navy veteran, is employed in Des Plaines.

Richard Sargent Takes Bride In North Carolina

The Airborne chapel at Fort Bragg, N. C. was the scene of the military wedding August 7 which united in marriage Miss Gladyce Blanco King of Fayetteville, N. C., and Lieutenant Richard J. Baskets of white gladioli decorated the church.

A light blue ballerina length dress of lace and a matching color hat were worn by the bride and she carried a mother-of-pearl rosary, and a white prayer book with orchid. She was led to the altar by Sgt. M. Oswald.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Irene Raymore who wore a dress of orchid lace and net, also of ballerina length and carried baby orchids.

Bridesmaids were Miss Helen Oswald, Miss Jancie Oswald, and Miss Susan Smith who wore gowns in pink, blue and orchid colors and carried bouquets of baby orchids to match.

Favorites For Flavor

An intriguing dessert, the flavor of which beguiles the palate, is being shared with us this week by Mrs. L. R. Hawley Jr., of 330 S. Beverley, Arlington Heights.

Many who have tasted this dessert have been misled regarding the ingredients, and some have even guessed that it contained chopped dates.

However, it contains but few ingredients, and dates are not listed among them. The dessert can be prepared quickly and easily, and the results are always successful.

Made in one bowl, it is baked in a pie tin, cooled and served topped with whipped cream. It is of chewy consistency, nourishing, mighty simple and mighty good!

The Hawleys moved to Arlington Heights three years ago. They have one daughter, Kathleen, who is nine months old. Mrs. Hawley is a member of the Catholic Women's club of Our Lady of the Wayside church.

Delicious Dessert

14 graham cracker,s crushed
3 eggs
1 teaspoon baking powder
1 teaspoon vanilla
1 cup chopped walnuts
1 cup sugar

Mix the ingredients together thoroughly and put into pie tin. Bake 25 minutes in 350 degree oven.

The dessert will flatten after it is removed from the oven Let cool.

As baseball goes, so goes this column — they've thrown in a pinch hitter, that is until your ever faithful reporter, Helene, and her husband, Bob, have returned from an extensive vacation. They're traveling to Upstate New York and on the way plan to visit friends and relatives and get a good view of the good old U. S. A. Happy vacation — Helene and Bob.

Blessed Event

Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Sutton of 2201 W. Campbell are the proud grandparents of a baby girl, Janet Anne, their first grandchild, born Sept. 7. According to the scales at St. Anne's hospital, she weighed 7½ lbs. and arrived in this world at 3 a.m. After 25 years, the Sutton family got their Janet Anne. That happens to be the name picked out for her father before he was born — so the first words Bob said to his mother when he called her about her new granddaughter were "Janet Anne finally arrived." Janet Anne's mommy and daddy are Mr. and Mrs. Robert M. Sutton who are scheduled to live in Rolling Meadows some time after Sept. 30. So congratulations and best wishes to the future Rolling Meadowites.

Meeting Place

The school recreation building, previously used for committee meetings, etc., can no longer be used as a meeting place as it is presently being used as a class room during the day. The school district has therefore discontinued the use of that building for meetings until such time as the class room has been moved to the new school building. However, as soon as the new school is completed, which will be in the near future, it will again be available to all those interested in holding meetings of a civic nature.

On Leave

Jim Sutton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Sutton, 2201 W. Campbell, spent a few hours at home with his parents last Sunday before returning to Ft. Leonard Wood, Mo., for reassignment to Ft. Riley, Kan. Jim also learned while he was here that his new niece had arrived.

Also on leave and staying with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Hickey, 2411 George st., is Lawrence Hickey and his wife, Felicia. Larry is presently stationed at Watertown, N. Y., where he will be discharged from the army Oct. 3. This short leave before being discharged was necessary because of his enrollment at the University of Illinois for the fall term. Larry and Felicia plan to stay with Mr. and Mrs. Hickey until they find suitable living quarters.

Visitors

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Dow, of Sigwalt st., are entertaining Bill's sister and husband, from Buffalo, N. Y., Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Lepinot. Mr. Lepinot is hospital director at the Rowell Park Memorial Institute, which is a cancer research hospital. He is here visiting and also attending the annual convention of the American Hospital Association which is being held in Chicago.

Also visiting friends here in Rolling Meadows, Ken and Lorraine Schroeder, 2205 W. Sigwalt st., are Dr. and Mrs. Frank Uhlman, and son, Randy. No wonder Ken started the painting of his house now, he has the able assistance of Dr. Uhlman who was seen up on the ladder working like a professional. Of course Ken is also on vacation, which will be spent in finishing the job.

Vacation

The Bob Jacobsons of Wilke rd. are visiting in Duluth, Minn. They have been away for a week now, and while in Duluth they attended the wedding of Bob's cousin and visited many relatives. Hope a wonderful time was had by all.

Injured

Terry Martin, 10 year old son of Charles and Grace Martin, Wilke rd., met with a very serious acident last week. He and a group of young boys were across the road shooting their beebe guns in an open field when suddenly, quite by acident, one of the guns was fired and the pellet hit Terry in the eye. The doctor, at first, was quite uncertain about saving the sight of the eye, but is much more hopeful since his visit to see Terry last Saturday. Terry is confined to his room which is kept completely dark and absolutely no light is permitted to enter. Besides listening to the radio, Terry's mother is helping him pass the lonely hours by reading to him. Wouldn't it be a nice gesture if the young folks of Rolling Meadows would send Terry a card? It would certainly help in cheering him up knowing that his friends wish him to get well soon. Terry's address is 2801 Wilke rd. — so start the cards rolling.

Boy Scouts

The Boy Scouts of Rolling Meadows, who are attached to Troop No. 69 in Palatine, attended their first meeting with the Troop last Thursday evening. Mr. Pete Keller took the boys over to the meeting and returned them to their homes after the meeting. The fathers, however, are planning to take turns in driving the boys over for the various meetings. The newest member of the Boy Scouts is Jim Nottke who also attended this last meeting.

Away To School

Blake Vaughn, 14-year-old son of the Ray Vaughn's, 2200 South st., is attending Holy Cross Seminary, South Bend, Ind., where he plans to study for the priesthood. The Vaughn's drove Blake to South Bend last Wednesday, and all hope he's not as homesick as they are lonesome for him. The job that Mrs. Vaughn found quite lengthy was the sewing of name tapes on every piece of clothing. What disturbed her most was the fact that after she had all the name tapes sewn on, she found that Blake had grown 6 inches during the summer and had to buy him new shirts and other clothing, necessitating the sewing on of more name tapes. Good luck Blake in your long hard study for the priesthood.

Birthday Party

The third birthday party of Ricky Roeing was a huge success. Ricky is the son of Richard and Shirley Roeing, 2300 Campbell st. Randy, Ricky's younger brother, was most impressed with all the presents and, of course, the ice cream and cake. Among guests attending the party were Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Walsh, Mr. and Mrs. Sven Roeing and their two sons, Dale and Dean, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Tatar, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Roeing and son, Roger, Mr and Mrs. Rolf Hanson and daughter, Jarice, and Mr. and Mrs Warren Stone and children, Kathy, Bobby and Barbara. Ricky's eyes sparked with joy at the sight of a miniature payloader as he remembered the days when such equipment moved tons of dirt in his backyard. Be careful Dick — your son might have ideas, and you do have seed in now.

Another birthday here in Rolling Meadows was celebrated Monday. Bob Pina Sr., of Wilke rd., was the star of this party with his folks from Chicago driving out for the birthday dinner. Perhaps the 39th?

PTA Round-Up Dance

The Parent-Teacher's Association of Palatine are holding an informal dance on Sept. 18 at 9 p.m. under the stars at the Oak Street school. Music is being furnished by The Sunset Serenaders. Dancing — square and round. Tickets are $1.00 per person and anyone interested in purchasing them should call Mrs. Wing Groves, CL. 3-1251. Door prizes are also being offered to the holders of the lucky tickets. This should be a wonderful way of getting acquainted with our neighbors from Palatine who seem anxious to meet each and everyone of us.

Neighborliness

The pouring of concrete for Bob Pina's garage last week brought together a friendly group. Several of Bob's friends from Chicago, together with the able assistance of Pete Keller and Bob Pollard, finished the job in no time at all. It's mighty nice to find help of this sort when it's most needed.

Bicycles

All older children riding bicycles on the sidewalks are asked to please be more careful and considerate of the small children of pre-school age. Several near accidents and spills have occurred due to the fast riding of the older children directly into groups of the younger children playing on the sidewalk. So mothers, please ask your children to be more careful when riding their bikes and I'm sure all mothers of small children will be most grateful.

Food Sale

Since the first food sale held by the ladies of the Rolling Meadows Community church was so successful, they are sponsoring another on Saturday, Oct. 16. They claim that the way to a man's heart is through his stomach, so save your bakery money that weekend and give your husband a treat with goodies baked by the lovely ladies. Anyone who would care to donate food or assist in this undertaking in any way is invited to call Gretchen White at CL. 3-8332.

News

For the remaining two weeks Helene, your regular reporter, is on vacation, I have the hard task of writing a column half as interesting as the one she submits each week. So if you'll bear with me and phone me all news bits, I'll do my best to keep this column — your column — going until her return. My telephone number is CL. 3-1251, and I'll be very glad to do anything I can to help you. Thanks so much.

Rolling Meadows Organizes New Girl Scouts Program

Rolling Meadows may soon have its own Neighborhood Association for Girl Scouts, it was announced this week. At present, they are affiliated with the Palatine group.

A request has been made to the Board of Directors of the Northwest Girl Scouts council, and it is expected that Rolling Meadows will be granted permission to start its own Neighborhood Association.

Local supervision of Girl Scouts troops is done by these associations, and the Rolling Meadows groups are now under the supervision of Palatine.

Organization of Girl Scouting in Rolling Meadows was completed at the Sept. 8 meeting, attended by 30 women and Mrs. Sue Harding, professional worker from the Cook county council. She explained the fundamentals of organization and the principles of scouting in general. Mrs. Busch, Mrs. Helgeson, and Mrs. Hamilton of Palatine assisted in getting the troops established.

Rev. Ringsmuth of the Community church has expressed the willingness of his church to sponsor Girl Scout troops. His offer was most heartily accepted. The first two troops will meet at 2502 Meadow dr., and Mrs. Abiather White, 2507 Sigwalt st., will represent them in the Neighborhood Association.

The Brownies (girls in 2nd to 4th grades) are meeting on Fridays at 6:30 p.m. This is a temporary meeting time because of split school shifts. Leader of the group is Mrs. Dorothy Amundson and co-leader is Mrs. Jane Self. Troop committee members are Mrs. Fred Schultz, Mrs. R. C. Sorensen, Mrs. Mabelle Casey, Mrs. Lorraine Van Wazer, Mrs. Velma Bozee, Mrs. Marjorie Kitterman, Mrs. Dorothy Wirth, and Mrs. Lorraine Brankin.

Intermediate Girl Scouts (fifth to eighth grades) meet Wednesdays at 7 p.m., and leader of this group is Mrs. A. White and co-leader is Mrs. Evelyn Jespersen. Troop committee members are Mrs. Pauline Lang, Mrs. Grace Nordlund, Mrs. Shirley Johnson and Mrs. Ruthmary Zupan.

The seniors (girls of high school age) will meet with the Arlington Heights troop. For more information regarding senior scouts, girls are asked to phone Mrs. Sharples at CLearbrook 3-8368.

Volunteer leaders will take a training course in Palatine October 5, 8, 12, 15, and 19. Sessions will begin at 9 a.m. and continue until 2 p.m. Adults are needed to baby-sit for some of the mothers, and interested persons may call Mrs. Sharples.

News of Elk Grove

School

Elk Grove now has an enrollment of 318 pupils. Everyone is eagerly awaiting the completion of the new biulding which is scheduled to be completed about Thanksgiving. There are now two classes in the basement. Mr. Case's band is also using a basement room. However, the basement rooms are very attractive this year since Mr. Schulze painted the band room and also the lunchroom making them bright and cheerful.

Mr. Turner and Mr. Rabattini have already scheduled some of the Little Seven conference softball games. The first one will be Tuesday with Prospect Hts. This game will be played right after school at Prospect Heights. The next game will be on September 24 with Wheeling at Wheeling and on September 28 with St. James here at the school. Let's get a big cheering section here at the school. Mothers who are interested in helping out by driving some of the team to and from the games are asked to contact the school.

Mothers' Club

A meeting of the Mothers' club of Elk Grove school was held last Thursday.

The newer members introduced themselves to the senior members at which time a vote was taken on refreshments for the coming months. All agreed that the hostesses for refreshments would be asked to serve according to grades from first through eighth.

Mothers' club meetings are held the second Thursday in the month in the school basement. On the second Thursday in October the first grade will bring the cakes and serve at that meeting.

An invitation is extended to all mothers of Elk Grove school pupils to come and get acquainted with both the teachers and all our wonderful mothers.

The officers for the coming year are as follows: Mrs. Richard Adams, president; Mrs. Walter Gates, vice president; Mrs. Kenneth Cook, secretary; Mrs. Charles Lemke, treasurer.

All news will be appreciated. Write Box 408 R. 2, Oakton st. or phone Vanderbilt 4-0347, Mrs. Glassie.

Rummage Sale

Mothers' club will have a rummage sale Oceober 1 in the evening. There will be a later notice on when and where to bring the articles for the rummage sale.

Personals

We are sorry to hear that Eddie Lumpp fell off the tractor and cut his leg enough to have four stitches. However, he will be back to school this week.

It's good to see the Gates children fully recovered from polio and back in school.

Lincoln st. doesn't seem the same on Tuesday and Thursday evenings without the residents cheering on their favorite ball team. The Boys' club of Lincoln st. are taking it easy now that the baseball season has come to an end. However, the Blues and Reds will be waiting and ready to take up sprin, training next summer and s will their parents. Everyon else will be on hand to chee their favorite team on to vic tory.

FRANCES SHILLINGTON

Mr. and Mrs. Zirko and daughter, Margaret Ann, with Mr. Zirko's father, left for Eau Claire, Wis. September 2 to visit Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Krewson and family. Mr. Zirko and his father went on a fishing trip before they all returned home September 5. Mrs. Buehler, Mrs. Zirko's mother, took care of baby Louis John while his parents were away visiting.

Mrs. Ann Phillipo, New Jersey, paid the Zirko family an unexpected visit Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Kruse, Kathy and Johnny, are enjoying a visit from Mr. Kruse's mother. Grandmoth-Kruse is visiting hre from Davenport, Iowa and plans on staying until Thanksgiving.

It would be greatly appreciated if all payments for the mosquito spraying would be sent to 222 Warren ave. by the end of this week, September 18. If you wish to have the money picked up, please call CLearbrook 3-9521.

Mrs. E. Saucedo of Palatine rd.

There was another very bad accident on the corner of Palatine and State rds. last Saturday night around 8 p.m. Details appear elsewhere in this paper. Traffic lights will probably be the only thing that will prevent death and serious injury at this corner. The least that could be done would be a four way stop. A few dollars spent on two stop signs could save many lives and much suffering.

Wilson Community

Opening meeting for the school year of the Wilson PTA was very well attended, and each family was given a small booklet containing the names of the officers, standing committee chairmen, and programs for all the meetings of the PTA from September through May of 1955. This calendar showed a great deal of thought and planning on the part of the officers and committee chairmen, and they are to be commended for the fine programs during the year.

A "get acquainted" tea will be held by the PTA for new residents in the district September 29, at the home of Mrs. Donald Nygren, president, and the hours will be from 1 to 4 p.m. Come and bring your new neighbor with you.

There was some discussion at the PTA meeting in regard to changing the regular date of the meetings from the second Friday of each month to some other evening, as it seemed some couldn't come due to Friday nights being shopping nights in Arlington, and also because the teachers preferred to end their week of teaching at 3 p.m. and not be obligated to come back to school on a Friday evening. Give this some thought and come prepared to vote on the subject at the next PTA meeting, October 8.

Room Mothers

The following mothers volunteered to be room mothers this year: 1st grade, Mrs. Carlson; 2nd grade, Mrs. Meyer; 3rd grade, Mrs. Mayer; 4th grade, Mrs. Strobach; 5th grade, Mrs. Bonn; 6th grade, Mrs. Van de Merkt. The seventh and eighth grades are still without room mothers. If you are interested, phone Mrs. Huebner, CL. 3-2856.

There are a great many boys at Wilson school who desire to be Cub Scouts and need the assistance of dads and mothers. These Cub Scouts will have a wiener roast at Wilson school on Tuesday, at 6 p.m., and invite all prospective Cub Scouts and their families, and all interested in a rewarding job. There are openings for cubmaster, assistant cubmaster, den mother, assistant den mothers and a committee.

Community News

Richard Schwertfeger has donated a gas mask to the school, which will be available to the entire neighborhood. Residents of 15 years or more will remember when a gas mask probably would have saved the lives of a boy and a would-be rescuer who suffocated from black damp in a well pit on Chestnut rd.

Happy birthday to Eliberto Saucedo Jr., who celebrated his seventh birthday September 8. Eliberto is the son of Mr. and

Home From Europe

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Keller and daughter, Charlotte, have returned from a six weeks jaunt to Europe and Africa. Conventional and jet planes carried them from country to country, cars meeting them at airports. In England they were guests of the Royal Photographic society of Great Britain, some of Mr. Keller's efforts on Rural USA being exhibited there. Having visited Hamburg and Frankfurt, they participated in Mrs. Keller's mother's eightieth birthday celebration, members of the family gathered from the various parts of the world. They toured the Rhein, Black Forest, Munich, Oberamergau, Garmish-Partenkirchen and ventured up to the Zugspitze, a breath taking view at an early morning hour on top of the world. In Austria, a trip through the Russian zone, and a view from the Kaltenberg over the Donau and Vienna, an evening at the Prater as well as Wine and song at Grinzig. At Vienna's New Rathouse Alkadien they enjoyed a benefit performance for the victims of the flood, by the Austrian Gendarmerie band and the USA band, the latter giving up a vacation leave to participate, and judging by the endless applause were certainly appreciated.

Then they went on to an old familiar stop Switzerland, and next was Spain, a tour of Toledo, and Madrid, with luncheon of the American club at the Castelana Hilton.

Their arrival at North Africa coincided with the recent conflict of the Arabs and their French Overseers, their stay at the Anfa-Residence kept them out of most of the hot areas.

At the Anfa hotel is where the historical Casablanca conference during World War II was held. Next visit was Lisbon and Estoril as well as Sintra, Portugal. Their homeward flight took them back to London, Iceland and New York, and then home to Arlington Heights. In their opinion there are many fine spots in this world, but none impressed them as much as their own USA.

'Citizens For Douglas' To Open Hq. In Arlington Heights

The first "Citizens for Douglas" headquarters in the entire Chicago suburban area will be opened in Arlington Heights, Monday, September 21, when the local Citizens for Douglas committee moves into permanent quarters for the coming senatorial campaign at 17 W. Campbell st.

Two days later, at 8 p.m. Wednesday evening, September 23, the event will be celebrated by the first public meting and open house of the local Citizens for Douglas organization, to which all residents of the Arlington Hts. area, as well as those of Mount Prospect and Palatine, are invited.

Feature of the public meeting will be an analysis of campaign issues and candidates by a representative of the Douglas state organization yet to be selected. In addition, plans for coming Arlington activities will be discussed, and as many Arlington Hts. residents as possible recruited for active participation in local campaign activities.

THE FORMAL meeting, which will be of short duration, will be followed by an informal open house, at which Arlington residents and their neighbors can get acquainted and exchange views over refreshments. The committee feels the open house will afford new residents of the fast-growing area a particularly good opportunity to meet each other as well as older residents and begin participation in local affairs.

In anticipation of the September 23rd opening, a busy program of activities for Douglas workers in the community has already been outlined by the committee.

A GROUP of local residents formed a motorcade to visit the headquarters of the Citizens for Douglas committee for the eleventh congressional district and to hear Senator Douglas in one of his neighborhood addresses Sept-11.

More than 100 Arlington Hts. residents will travel to Evanston to hear former Governor Adlai E. Stevenson in a major campaign address at the Evanston high school gymnasium September 24. Though admission is by ticket only, it is hoped a few tickets will still be available for distribution at the Sept. 23 meeting and open house.

Though the new Arlington Hts. Douglas headquarters will have its own telephones, with numbers to be announced later, those willing to volunteer urgently needed services in preparing for the headquarters opening and other work are urged by the committee to phone CLearbrook 3-7746 any evening after 6 p.m.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

Released September 13, 1954

How we may prove and experience man's God-given dominion over material bondage of all kinds —sin, disease, and limitation— will be brought out at Christian Science services Sunday, September 19. The subject of the Lesson-Sermon is "Matter."

The spiritual heritage of freedom which belongs to man is set forth in the following selections from the Bible (Galatians 4:6,7): "And because ye are sons, God hath sent forth the Spirit of his Son into your hearts, crying, Abba, Father. Wherefore thou art no more a servant, but a son; and if a son, then an heir of God through Christ."

The following passage will be among those read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy (223:3): "Sooner or later we shall learn that the fetters of man's finite capacity are forged by the illusion that he lives in body instead of in Soul, in matter instead of in Spirit."

Hot Weather Labor Day Aids Crops

Nature cooperated in maturing the corn crop by sending record breaking temperatures at Labor Day. Records lasting ever since weather records were started were broken everywhere. Temperatures ranged from 95 degrees in the North to 105 degrees in the south. This two or three days of torrid temperatures pushed maturity, so that only in the extreme north edge of the corn belt and in parts of Nebrasga is more than a week needed to mature the corn crop.

Soybean combining has started in south central Illinois ir areas where the drouth hastened maturity. Soybeans in general will be an excellent crop, as the August 1 rains were early enough to benefit them even in areas where corn was rather badly hurt. In the main soybean belt of central Illinois, beans are just starting to turn yellow, and an excellent crop is expected.

DeKalb seed corn crop and weather observers in the south edge of the corn belt — in Kansas, Oklahoma, southern Missouri, Kentucky and Tennessee— report that much rain is still needed for fall crops and to replenish subsoil moisture. In these states, rainfall has been below normal for about two years and a half. Even milo, a very drouth resistant crop, needs rain at once to make any kind of a crop in Kansas. Only a few corn fields in Kansas are expected to make 10% of a crop.

Now is an excellent time for many corn belt farmers to fly over their fields to locate areas of poorer corn. Air observations, especially on the south central part of the corn belt, will show areas which are drying up prematurely in most fields. Thus corn growers can get a visual demonstration of their soil and water problems before corn has fully matured.

Food Freezers Checked... Find Them to Be Good Investments

By IRA MILLER
Farm Electrification Bureau

Are farm and home freezers a good investment? Well, let's see what 114 families had to say about them when interviewed recently by staff specialists from Cornell University. All of the families had owned food freezers for 5 years or more. Thirty-five lived on farms, 43 in urban communities, and 36 resided in rural areas but did not operate farms.

FOOD FREEZERS—pay their own way in many farm homes.

To the question—"has your food freezer paid its way"—105 of the 114 families answered yes. Nine said they weren't sure, but added that they wouldn't be without one. Fifty-seven percent of the total cited convenience as the top quality offered by food freezers. The word, "convenience," can mean a host of things from ease of food preservation and storage, to having at hand a wide variety of cakes, pies, meat and vegetables ready to serve at a moment's notice.

Eighteen percent said food freezers helped them to save money. Many of them quick-froze their own home-grown products. Others bought —at quantity prices—larger amounts of poultry, meat and commercially frozen food than they normally would get for daily needs. They cooked what they needed for one meal and froze the rest for later use. A number of the freezer owners said they found it was easier, faster and more efficient to preserve food by freezing than by other methods. Better year-round eating and the ability to serve "more interesting meals" also appealed to a large group.

Enjoying out-of-season foods is one of the pleasures available to freezer owners. Fruit, sweet corn and vegetables can be just as tasty at Christmas time as when they arrive fresh from the garden if they have been prepared and frozen correctly. Instruction books on using freezers are available from all freezer manufacturers.

Preparation of meals is made easier with a freezer. Foods are ready to cook without peeling or washing. They cook faster, and you can prepare whole meals days and weeks ahead of any special occasion. Freezing retains more of the food value than any other methods of food preservation. Valuable vitamins and minerals are frozen in. And frozen food holds its natural color and taste.

Milk Production Drops In Spite Of Rain Or Dry Spells

by L. H. SIMERL

Milk production has dropped more sharply than usual since June 1 of this year. The main reason is probably the hot, dry weather—although many important dairy areas hav escaped both heat and drouth. In fact, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Michigan, and the New England states have had unusually favorable weather and pastures.

Milk output in July was the same as it was a year ago. This was the first month since August 1952 that failed to show a substantial increase over production of a year earlier. Production during the rest of 1954 is also expected to be close to last year's level.

Farmers added 1.3 million milk cows to their herds in 1952 and 1953 while prices of milk were being supported at 90 per cent of parity. A survey by the USDA on June 1 showed practically no change in cow numbers since last December. At that time farmers had 24.7 million milk cows.

ONE REASON farmers went to milking more cows in 1952 and 1953 was that milking became relatively more profitable than producing beef. In those two years average prices received by farmers for beef cattle dropped 46 per cent, while prices of milk went down only 12 per cent and butterfat went up 5 per cent. Farmers looking for ways to turn grass and legumes into marketable products naturally went to the dairy business.

Consumption of dairy products appears to have increased slightly. USDA figures show that about 5 per cent more butter was used in the first half of this year than in the same period last year. The average retail price was reduced from 78 cents a pound in March to 69 cents in June.

Consumption of cheese has increased less than the use of butter, probably because retail prices of cheese have been reduced very little.

THE U. S. average retail price for milk was only ½ cent a quart lower in June this year than last year. Such a small reduction cannot be expected to bring much increase in sales of fluid milk. But in several cities where substantial price cuts were made, sales have increased considerably. It appears that lower retail prices are more effective than special advertising in boosting sales of milk.

In recent years federal law has directed the Secretary of Agriculture to support the price of milk at a level between 75 and 90 per cent of parity that is "necessary to assure an adequate supply." Because excessive supplies had accumulated, the secretary on April 1 reduced the support level from 90 per cent to 75 per cent of parity. The recent farm act does not change this law.

The program now in effect is intended to support average prices of manufacturing milk at $3.15 a hundred pounds and butterfat at 56.2 cents a pound.

Here's a puzzle for you: On August 1 milk production per cow in dry and blistered Missouri was 2 per cent above last year. At the same time, in lusa Wisconsin output per cow was 2 per cent less and in verdant Minnesota 6 per cent less than last year.

Corn With Smut OK For Silage

Don't let the presence of a considerable amount of smut in your cornfields stop you from making silage.

Karl Gardner, dairy specialist and G. R. Carlisle, extension livestock specialist, Univeristy of Illinois college of agriculture, say that no evidence has shown up in research work to indicate that smut in silage harms livestork.

IN ONE TEST, they report, heifers ate four pounds of smut each day in their rations for more than two weeks without any harmful effects.

Gardner and Carlisle say that, if you make silage from cornstalks showing smut damage, it might be a good idea to start feeding the silage gradually to your stock. And you might feed some hay along with the silage to keep any of the animals from going off feed.

8 Lake Co. Farmers Left In Last Threshing Ring

One of the very few threshing rings in Lake County is rapidly completing its work in this area.

Where a score or more years ago 30 farmers pooled their efforts in a round of threshing of grain on their separate farms only eight are left in the ring which is headed up by Joseph Vogt, operator of the machine.

In former years it took the ring a month and a half to complete its threshing; now the work is confined to a few days. Because of the limited number of members and helpers pitching of sheaves into the jaws of the old fashioned threshing machine was done this year from one side of the machine only, where in olden days pitchers fed both sides of the carrier.

THE OATS were cut in sheaves and stacked several weeks ago. At the time of threshing they were pitched onto wagons, called ladders, and hauled to the threshing machine called a separator.

This group of farmers likes the old way though, saying they get more enjoyment in the process.

Cattle Trichomoniasis Germ Lives At Low Temperatures

The organism that causes cattle trichomoniasis can survive when frozen at temperatures as low as 76 degrees if glycerol is added to a standard culture medium.

At a meeting of the Society of Protozoologists being held at Gainesville, Florida, Dr. N. D. Levine today reported the findings of an experiment dealing with the survival of these protozoa.

THE EXPERIMENT was conducted at the University of Illinois college of veterinary medicine by Dr. Levine and W. C. Marquardt. It was supported by a research grant from the United States Public Health Service's National Institute of Health.

The experiment showed that the number of protozoa living at this low temperature depended on the rate at which the temperature was lowered. If it was lowered too rapidly, none lived.

TRICHOMONIASIS is one of the diseases that causes cattle to abort. It can be spread by bulls through natural or artificial breeding, or by cows during natural breeding. You can prevent it by isolating infected breeding animals and using semen from disease-free bulls for artificial insemination. Keep a breeding record of each animal in your herd.

If the disease does strike your herd, your veterinarian can recommend a plan that will keep it from spreading and will get the disease out of your herd in the shortest possible time.

Farmers May Reduce Corn Acreage, If —

Corn producers who have exceeded their corn acreage allotments for 1954 now have an opportunity to adjust the acreage down to the allotment, according to Carl M. Bormet, chairman of the local ASC office.

This is based on a new ruling which provides that "Corn planted in excess of the allotment will not be regarded as corn acreage if it is not harvested as grain, silage or fodder and not left standing in the field later than September 30, 1954."

UNDER THIS year's program, explained Mr. Bormet, a farmer has to comply with his corn allotment in order to get price support loans or purchase agreements on his corn crop. Some of our farmers planted more than their allotted acreage. They can now plow or disk down some of their corn as green manure and thereby comply with allotment requirements.

It should be clearly understood, cautioned Mr. Bormet, that the acreage cannot be utilized for feed in any manner, and action must be taken by September 30. Any farmers interested in this matter should contact the office at 201 N. Dunton ave., Arlington Heights, for further details to make certain necessary follow up action is taken by us.

Urge Farmers To Seed Wheat September 19-22

Although the population of the Hersian fly is not large, for optimum yields it is wise to seed wheat on the dates of September 19-22 says farm adviser Carl F. Mees.

These are the dates recommended by the Entomology department, University of Illinois, Urbana.

HERSIAN FLY has not been a problem for the wheat grower the past several years because seeding dates have been pretty well followed.

Mees recommends that in addition to following the fly due date to also supply the needed fertilizer for the wheat, especially phosphate and in early spring seed a legume catch crop. Sweet clover and alfalfa would top the list. However Red and Mammoth clovers make effective catch crops also.

Phosphate Boosts Winter Wheat Yields

If your soil needs phosphorus you'll have the best chance for a quick return if you put it on with winter wheat.

Carl F. Mees, farm adviser says wheat responds well to phosphate fertilizers. These fertilizers stimulate growth in the fall and will often give yields a boost.

You can apply fertilizers that your soil needs at any time in the crop rotation, but a good place to start on a soil building program is with a phosphate treatment for wheat. The boost in yield is often enough to pay for the phosphate, as well as other plant food to be added later. This quick return from phosphate is helpful if you operate on a limited budget for fertilizer.

When you apply the phosphate with the wheat, you will be putting it into the soil in time to help any legumes you seed to follow the wheat. Soil tests are the best guide for applying needed amounts of phosphate.

Scouters And Adults To Hold Fall Barbecue At Baden-Powell

Northwest suburban council, Boy Scouts of America, invites interested scouters and adults to attend the annual fall barbecue at Camp Baden Powell on River rd., one-half mile north of Maryville training academy, commencing at 11 a. m. Saturday, Sept. 18. Reservations should be phoned in to the council office, Talcot 3-4191, not later than Friday noon.

The activities include an orientation course in Cub scouting, Boy scouting and Explorer scouting and an opportunity to observe the conservation activities conducted by the Boy Scouts of America in response to President Eisenhower's plea for a conservation good turn program for 1954. Demonstrations of camping techniques will also be highlighted, and the afternoon will close with a typical Scouting campfire presented by members of the Order of the Arrow, a National Honor Camper Fraternity.

This barbecue is presented by the commissioner staff of the Northwest Suburban council in an effort to train their new leaders and to present the program of the council for the ensuing year. Lester T. McAuliffe of Arlington Heights is chairman of the event and is assisted by Russ Young of Palatine; Ray Woodruff of Arlington Heights; Al Roeder of Des Plaines; Harry Mendenhall Jr. of Park Ridge, and Thorvald Petersen of Skokie, all district commissioners. Jordan A. Minerva, assistant scout executive of the Northwest Suburban council, is coordinator for the event.

Lay Group Reports on Shift And Modified Shift Schools

The following report was submitted to the Citizens' Lay Advisory Committee of Township High School District 214 at its last meeting Thursday, Sept. 9. The text of the report carries several references to letters from educators in nearby communities. These letters, though not reprinted, were attached to the committee report presented to the Lay Advisory committee. Here is the text of the final report filed by the Sub-Committee on Shift and Modified Shift Schools:

The committee appointed to study shift and modified shift schools has completed its inquiry along the lines proposed in their initial report made to the Citizens' Lay Committee on July 1, 1954, and can find no basis on which to recommend any degree of a modified shift or double shift system as a permanent solution to the growing enrollment problem facing Township High School District 214.

INFORMATION gathered from educators and from secondary school administrators indicates clearly that those high schools which have operated under a shift system have done so because they had no other choice and have returned to a normal schedule at the earliest possible date. A shift system in any high school brings many problems, varying in degree according to the type of district that school serves, which may seriously affect the education and general welfare of the students under such a system. A shift system works better in a city high school where public transportation is available, the geographical area served is smaller, and students can enroll for both morning and afternoon classes.

If a shift system was a satisfactory solution to the rapid growth in enrollment now facing so many secondary schools we should find many schools adopting that plan—even if only temporarily. But instead, we find such situations as Thornton Fractional high school, with an enrollment comparable to Arlington Heights Township high school, building a second high school within the district to serve the community of Lansing; J. Sterling Morton High School District (Cicero), which has operated under a type of shift system for many years, building a new building to serve Berwyn and going on a normal schedule; Grant Community high school of Fox Lake planning an addition to their present building in order to discard the double shift on which they have operated for the past three years. The letter received by this committee from Noble J. Puffer, County Superintendent of Schools, states: "I know of no high school in Cook county now operating a double shift system. I know of no high schools operating on what you call a modified shift system."

THIS COMMITTEE feels it advisable to report in some detail the results of their study of shift systems inasmuch as it seems very probable that this district will of necessity have to operate under such a system beginning with the school year 1956-57. This conclusion is based on the information given to the Citizens' Lay Committee by LeRoy J. Knoeppel that the enrollment expected for the 1955-56 school year would necessitate this high school going on a system of nine 40-minute periods per day and his further information to this committee that in his opinion present facilities and number of classrooms could satisfactorily take care of an enrollment of 1600 students under that schedule. Enrollment figures accepted by the Citizens' Lay Committee clearly indicate that by the beginning of the school year 1956-57 the enrollment will be well beyond 1600. In our conference with Mr. Slichenmyer, who is now the superintendent of Township High School District 214, he stated that he would prefer to enlarge classes to the point of over crowding rather than to go on a shift system. An understanding of the problems and deficiencies of a shift system should be important to the Citizens' Lay Committee in reaching a conclusion as to the "when" and "how much" expansion of facilities should be made.

(Note—Included with and made a part of this report were letters from Wade L. Eberly, principal of Grant Community high school of Fox Lake; and Allen R. Moore, superintendent of the J. Sterling Morton high school and junior college. Due to lack of space these two letters are not published.)

From the information received from Edward Simon, former County Superintendent of Schools, from Mr. Eberly and Mr. Moore, and from Homer C. Torreyson, member of this committee and a teacher in Lane Technical high school, and from conferences with the administrators of this high school, members of this committee point out the following advantages and disadvantages to be expected from a shift program.

Advantages:

1. Less per pupil cost to taxpayers, at least for a limited time—with the 40-minute minimum period a teacher could handle the maximum load of pupils and there would be extended use of classroom space. However, most administrators agree there is a limit to that per pupil cost saving.

2. Upper class pupils and their parents might welcome the opportunity for the student to earn by working one-half day.

3. Some teachers might welcome being relieved of study hall and activity supervision duties, and receiving additional pay for increased classroom teaching.

Disadvantages:

1. Less overall instruction resulting in a less educated child. The short period of 40 minutes means the class period is devoted principally to recitation and testing and there is not time for supervised study and individual help. Colleges claim that pupils who have supervised study in high school are better students.

2. Elimination of study halls and of sufficient opportunity for pupils to use library and reference materials definitely depriving students of real educational opportunities and limiting the scope of teaching.

3. Decrease in counselling opportunities and reduced individual help and teacher guidance for students due to solid schedule for both teachers and pupils, short periods, and maximum pupil load for teachers.

4. Poorer teaching, not because of calibre of teachers, but because of conditions under which they work. Extended use of present facilities could make it impossible for each teacher to have a "work station." Some teachers find a late shift difficult. Some excellent teachers might be reluctant to teach in a shift system.

5. Problem of increased responsibility on parents to supervise study and supervise hours pupils are not in school.

Hazards of juvenile delinquency because of pupils' hours out of school placing greater responsibility on home and community.

7. Elimination of many extra-curricular activities which now play an important part in education, development and adjustment of pupils.

8. Some students might be deprived of opportunity to participate in athletic program because of transportation schedule and class schedule.

9. Shifts must overlap and all the students be in school at the same time for some periods, posing definite problems relative to crowded corridors, locker space, etc.

The attached letters indicate the many programming difficulties under a shift system. However, conversation with Mr. Knoeppel indicated that in his opinion a shift system would mean no real contraction in curriculum. The fact that in this district, which covers approximately 67 square miles, about 2/3 of the pupils enrolled are dependent upon school buses for transportation adds to the programming difficulties and would make it difficult for some pupils to participate in the athletic program, which must necessarily be affected by a shift system. Mr. Eberly's comments on this subject are pertinent and this district would experience comparable difficulties and problems.

BOTH THE SCHOOL of Education of the University of Illinois and the NEA in Washington, D. C., reported that they knew of no study having been made relative to how students rank academically in comparative situations with respect to normal sessions and shift programs, the NEA indicating that there were so many variable factors involved that such a study would have little value. The concensus of opinion of the educators and administrators consulted on this point was that the shift system deprived particularly the average student, that the good student would do well under any circumstances and the poor student would be a poor student under any circumstances; however, both the good student and the poor student would gain more under a full program.

Any consideration of a shift system must take into account the importance of the rating of this high school by the colleges and universities of the North Central Association and the effect the institution of such a system might have on that rating. Attached to this report are statements taken from the official bulletins of both the University of Illinois and the North Central Association relative to number of class periods required for units of study, teaching load, etc. An undue hardship will be inflicted upon the large number of college preparatory students in this district unless this high school can continue to meet the minimum requirements of the North Central Association.

We are informed that at the present time this high school is very highly rated by the North Central Association, that reputation being based not only on its meeting that association's requirements, but on the scholastic and achievement record graduates have made in the colleges and universities it represents. There is reason for concern that any continuance for any length of time under a shift program could impair that record and standing, working a hardship not only on the students forced to spend their high school years under a shift system, but also on the students who graduate for several years after such a system may have been discarded. It is necessary that we consider the welfare of our college preparatory students who will be graduating a few years hence when the colleges and universities will be feeling the bulge in enrollment now approaching the high schools, and college entrance requirements may well be raised.

The State of Illinois requires by statute 200 minutes of physical education per week for each student. We point this out because even under a shift program there comes a point in enrollment when present facilities, including playground area, gymnasium locker space, showers, and gymnasium floor space, will be utilized to capacity and the physical education requirements would have to take precedence over the use of any facilities for the athletic program. The members of this committee suggest that if and when a shift system is put in operation the administration and school board investigate the possibility of inaugurating an ROTC program, which can be substituted for the physical education requirement for some of the students.

In considering the disadvantages of a shift system the members of this committee wish to particularly recommend that when and if such a system must be adopted at this high school that, if at all possible, the administration continue its counselling program for students inasmuch as it would seem this service and guidance for students would be even more necessary under a shift system.

Feehanville School

Budget hearing of the board of education of school district 26 will be held at 8 o'clock, Wednesday, at the Feehanville schoolhouse. This is an open meeting, and all interested persons are invited to attend.

Two members of the board, (Mr. C. W. Flink, president, and Mrs. I. A. Hanson, secretary,) and Miss Idyl Nipper attended the meeting of the zoning bureau last Friday night in Arlington Heights village hall. The property under discussion is a strip of ground extending from Rand rd. to Rt. 83, just south of Sobie's and lies within the boundaries of school district 26. The prospective purchaser petitioned the zoning board to change the zoning of this property from residential to business and displayed drawings of the attractive building he proposed to erect to be used as an automobile showroom. There will be another meeting of the zoning board on this same matter September 24 as a representative of the village of Mt. Prospect asked that the board delay their decision until he has had time to report to his village board and planning commission and get their opinion.

PTA Meeting

Feehanville PTA will hold their first meeting of the season Tuesday, 8 o'clock, at the school. An interesting program has been planned for the evening.

Executive board of the PTA were enthusiastic over the sample of the attractive yearbook for the current school year, which was presented at the last executive meeting. The board also unanimously approved the plans for the fall rummage sale as presented by Mrs. Roberta Phar, chairman of the ways and means committee. (The rummage sale is scheduled for Oct. 1 and 2 and now is the time to sort out and discard all outgrown clothing, odds and ends of dishes, unused but usable gadgets—and bring them to the PTA members delegated to receive them.)

Child Health conference will be at 9:30, Tuesday morning at the community hall. Any mothers desiring more specific information should call Mrs. Jeanne Karmer, chairman, Va. 4-9571.

Judy Olson, of the Feehanville school, has been very ill, and has had to miss several days of the first week of school.

Congratulations to Harold Lee Broberg, who was elected assistant editor of the "Scholar," at the Prospect Heights school.

We are glad to have Betty Sue Henk back with us. She attended the Feehanville school in her first, second and third grades, and is now back with us as a sixth grader. The Albert Henks are building their home on Westgate road and are living in a trailer on their lot until their home is completed.

Church Notes

The September meeting of the Teen-age Club will be Saturday at the community hall. The business meeting will start promptly at 7:30, with the social immediately following.

Parent-Teachers' night at the Forest River church will be Friday. Mrs. Ruth Bischof, Miss Ruth Pierson, Emert Roos and Jack Levine, committee members, have planned a full, exciting evening for all who attend. There will be a display of the kind of work the various classes have been doing — movies of the Sunday School picnic — slides and recordings of the classes in session—games—and, of course, refreshments.

One hundred and six men, women and children attended the Forest River Sunday school on Rally day. There were many promotions in each department, and certificates were given to Candy Deering, Scott Campbell, Kathie Condie, Susie Levine, Paul Hartwig and Lolita Lopez, all of whom were promoted from one department into another. About 10 awards were given out to the complete family groups who were present. Miss Jean Dick told the story of Zacchaeus, the publican, using the flannelgraph for illustration.

Fall activities of the Forest River church are well under way. On Monday nights at 7 p.m. the Christian Service brigade meet for boys 12 to 18, under the leadership of Emert Roos.

Tuesdays at 7:30 p.m., the Colonist group of the Pioneer Girls meet for girls 12 to 14, under the leadership of Miss Ruth Pierson, Mrs. Lola Roos and Mrs. Marilyn Roos.

Wednesdays at 7 p.m., the Stockade meets, boys eight to 11, under the leadership of Bernard Shimmin, with Robert Martens, John Hanson and Robert Levine assisting. Also on Wednesdays at 8 p.m. the Ladies' Bible class holds their meeting either at the home of Mrs. Dorothy Hartwig on Hill st., or Miss Betty Shimmin on Foundry rd. These ladies have the meetings in their homes on alternate Wednesdays.

Thursdays at 7 p.m. there is a class in advanced teacher training, and at 8 p.m. there is a prayer meeting.

Fridays at 6:30 p.m. the Pilgrim group of the Pioneer Girls, for girls 8 to 11, meet under the leadership of Mrs. Anne Culp and Miss Jean Dick, with Margaret Kirste assisting. Also on Fridays the regular adult teachers' training class meets. The next meeting of this class is on September 24 at the home of the Bischofs on Anita ave. The following Friday it will be at the home of the Jack Levines on McDonald rd. These families have the meetings on alternate Fridays.

Forest River church has applied for a building permit for a four-room addition to the present building. They are hoping to be able to announce a date for a ground-breaking ceremony soon.

With these chilly, fall days we've been having, thoughts of Christmas are occurring more and more often, and Mrs. Lola Roos is extending a very timely invitation to the ladies of the community. She is having a toy demonstration party at her home at 288 Warrington rd., Cumberland, at 7:30 p.m., Monday. The profits from any sales will go into the building fund of the Forest River church.

Robert Roos received a warm welcome last week on his return from Toccoa, Ga. He had been staying at the Lake Louise Bible Conference grounds, and has had a very busy summer, camp counseling, working with Youth for Christ, preaching at many of the little churches in the vicinity, and teaching a Sunday school class at the penitentiary there. He is back for the winter, and plans to attend school at the Moody Bible institute.

Community News

Corinne Lopez enjoyed the Labor day weekend with friends on a farm near Newton, Ill. Not only did she go horse-back riding all she wished, but she also had a new experience—that of driving a horse and buggy in the good, old-fashioned way. Jackie Alexander and Joby Badalamenti were "baby-sitters" for Flicker (Corinne's own horse) while she was away on her trip.

Larry and Barry Bischof report they had good luck on their fishing trip last weekend. They stayed with their grandmother, Mrs. Ambrose, in Milwaukee.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Henk and daughter drove to Frankfort, Ill., last Saturday to visit Mr. Henk's mother, Mrs. Frankenberg. On their return trip they stopped off to spend the evening with their folks, Dr. and Mrs. Roger Concklin of Elmhurst.

The Anthony Lopezes entertained the Cerriti family and Mr. and Mrs. Kornatz of Chicago last week Sunday with a dinner party at their home on Anita ave. After dinner the children enjoyed a session of square dancing.

These days are crammed full of excitement for the Adam Grendas on Foundry rd. Their son, Richard, who has been stationed in Texas, came home September 5 on a 41-day furlough. There has been a great deal of entertaining with Richard as guest of honor both at the Grendas and at the homes of friends and relatives.

Etta, Joseph and Pamela Guerri are back from their vacation. They spent a week visiting their grandmother, Mrs. Anna Sacchet of East Palestine, Ohio. Pamela visited her old school friends there, and they all attended the Columbiana fair. Etta, when telling about the wonderful time they had on their trip, added "and for relaxation, we picked tomatoes and beans."

Congratulations to the Bucaros, whose 7 pound, 12 ounce boy Michael Victor, was born September 4 at St. Joseph's hospital in Chicago. Mrs. Bucaro, with Michael and his 18 months' old sister, Kathy, are staying with Mrs. Bucaro's mother in Chicago at present.

Birthday congratulations this week go to Glen Follett, who was 6 on September 8; Phyllis Schwichtenberg, who was 15 on September 10; Mary Ann Huening, who was 4 on September 11, and Elaine Adams, who was 8 on September 11. Thomas Kramer is celebrating his fourth birthday and Donna Jean Murphy her tenth birthday today, Thursday, and Carol Ann Buttner will be 7 tomorrow.

The ladies of the Birthday club had their September party at the home of Rita Badalamenti. The ladies all enjoyed Rita's delighted exclamations as she received her lovely gifts. Mrs. Florence Villadon won the prize of the evening, a cobbler's bench planter.

The board of directors of the Forest River Home Owners' Civic association, settled a good many perplexing problems at their meeting last Monday night. Of particular interest to the members is the plan for a concerted membership drive, culminating in a fall gathering at the next association meeting.

Prospect Meadows

The weather was bright and beautiful for the second annual fair in Prospect Meadows. Comparing the affair with last year's we were amazed at the difference. Our residents had become so proficient at setting up a fair grounds they may bell be called professionals. The experience of one year was truly used. Booths were beautifully decorated. In addition to games, refreshment, white elephant, grandmothers' and children's booths of last year there was the booth stocked with donated prizes; also the fish bowl booth which displayed wares and services donated by local merchants; the over and under game in the center of the fairway, which increased the profits immeasurably and the popular delicatessen booth which was extremely hard to keep stocked.

Arlette Klein, if she is still with us after this "ordeal," chairman of the fair, did a magnificent job of correlating all the booths. She promises a full list of all the local merchant donors and the names of the committee workers for next week's publication. Arlette certainly deserves a rousing thanks from everyone in the Meadows, and of course so do the many committee workers and booth attendants for making this annual fair such a huge success financially and funwise.

A lawn table and umbrella was taken home by John W. Sweazey of Chicago. Mr. Sweazey is the brother-in-law of John Wrath of our community. The handmade stole was taken home by Mrs. Andrew Splithoff Sr., of Chicago. Mrs. Lillian Kneller of Albian Lane is owner of the gold and pearl collar and Mrs. Lillian Abbinatti of Bob-o-Link, the silver and pearl collar.

Scout News

Intermediate girl scouts will resume activities this month with a tea. Mrs. Dorothy Doyle, scout leader, has not yet set the date for the tea. At present, the girls are recovering from their handling of the kiddies booth at the fair. This booth was strictly for the entertainment of children and no profit was intended or made. Every child in the Meadows was able to win a little prize.

Cards have been sent to all second, third and fourth grade girls in the Meadows inviting them to join the new Brownie Troop being formed. The initial meeting will take place after school, September 21, at the home of Mrs. Lois Revus, 201 W. Euclid. Any child wishing to join the Brownies is invited to call Mrs. Donald Finch, CLearbrook 3-3661, for further information. Mrs. Finch and Mrs. Doyle have done a remarkable job in organizing scout groups. We have very active girls always willing to lend a hand whenever a community project is undertaken by either the Association or the Women's Auxiliary. We adults want them to know they are appreciated.

Newcomers

We take this opportunity to welcome the Willis family into our community. They recently moved into 628 Foundry rd.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Conway moved from our community last week to Rock Island, where Mr. Conway has been transferred in his work. Mr. Conway had been an active member of the board of directors of the Property Owners association until his transfer forced him to resign. We want to thank the Conways for their many efforts in community projects, and wish them well in their new home.

Mrs. Jane Harland is home from St. Francis hospital. All her neighbors and friends wish her well.

Cardinals In Grid Opener Against Leyden Friday Night

MAC SAYS

BY G. A. McELROY

THIS COMING WEEKEND is the official opening of high school football in Illinois. All schools in the suburban area will be playing preliminary games outside their own conferences and most of them will open league play the following week end.

A very even race is predicted in the Northwest conference. All schools are optimistic about their chances. Grayslake and Grant, who finished well down the list last year, have a big flock of returning lettermen. Ela-Vernon, last year's unbeaten champs, have enough veterans returning to make them a first division threat.

Wauconda will have a veteran backfield and enough good linemen to make a good showing. Bison fans are optimistic about their squad this year and hope to rise to the first division.

Antioch looks like the team to beat with more regulars returning than any of the rest of the league. The Sequoits finished second last year and do not intend to go anywhere but up from that point. Glenbrook will have the strongest line if depth and experience count. The Spartans, who got a third last year, have something like 18 out of 28 squad members back including all-league tackle, Jeryl May. Palatine finished very strong last year with four straight wins. With the same backfield and five regular linemen returning, the Pirates hope to be one of the top outfits.

A FEW YEARS AGO Arlington Heights and Leyden had two of the best freshman football teams in the suburban area. This year those boys are on the varsity squads which clash Friday night in the non-conference opener for both schools under the floodlights at Arlington Heights field.

The Cards are expected, for the first time since they joined the West Suburban, to figure in the championship race.

Maine, whom Heights meets in the league opener, and Hinsdale are two West Suburban teams very highly rated. Then, too, LaGrange will be around again.

WE ARE NOT, IN ANY WAY, trying to detract from the value of football as a sport, but statistics speak for themselves when football is compared with other activities from the standpoint of injuries. The Horace Mann Mutual Insurance company, a creation of the Illinois Educational association, insures most of the high school athletes in Illinois. Their rates for athletes who play football as compared with those who compete in other sports show a great variation.

Palatine high, for example, with 585 students falls in a size class where insurance of all athletes for all sports, including football, is a flat $1,000.00. The same size school without football but including all other sports would pay only $160.00.

According to their rates, based on injury claims, a boy playing football for six weeks is about five times as great a risk as one engaging in any other sports for 30 weeks.

"CHICK" JAGADE, who is playing fullback for the Chicago Bears this year after several seasons with the Cleveland Browns, was once an outstanding athlete at Leyden community high when that school was in the now defunct Northeast conference.

Jagade was a football standout and won both high and low hurdle events in league track, setting a low hurdle record which was still the best when the league folded and left Arlington, Leyden, and Niles without a conference home.

THE RECENT Little League victory of Mt. Prospect over LaGrange in the regional tournament at Blue Island is still having repercussions. LaGrange is considering withdrawal from the national Little League association due to two reasons, one of them an umpire's ruling in the 2-1 loss to Mt. Prospect.

LaGrange contends Gary Kemp should not have been called out after hitting a homer out of the park just because he tagged the upraised black rim of home plate instead of the white diamond portion.

Complicating the technicality was that the umpire called the play without receiving Mt. Prospect's protest and, therefore, without authority. Second point is limitation of any town of over 10,000 population to one four-team league which would cut opportunities of play unless a second Little League four-team loop was organized with separate officials, etc.

TOM PETERS, one of the greatest football ends and all-'round athletes at Glenbard, has reported to Wisconsin . . . Tom's father and two older brothers are all Badger graduates . . . Youth movement is on at Illinois where 34 of 66 grid candidates are sophomores . . . Only 13 are seniors . . . DeKalb college holds an 84-50 edge over this year's opponents, including a 24-5 over Wheaton . . . DeKalb grid mentor "Chick" Evans has been there 26 years . . . Longest run in Northwestern U. history was a 105 yard dash with a recovered fumble behind the goal line in 1922 by Chuck Palmer, now grid mentor at Fenger in Chicago.

It will be daughter against father in Friday night's Leyden opener at Arlington . . . The dad is Sam England, athletic director of Leyden, the daughter, Elaine Wissen, one of the girls' phys. ed. instructors at Arlington Heights high school.

With her husband instructing gym in Arlington junior high, Elaine is doubly certain to cheer for the Cardinals . . . One of the West Suburban league alum newcomers gaining favor of grid coaches at DeKalb is Joe Reedy of York . . . Tom Skubich of Hinsdale is also mentioned.

What ares mean to high school football was again "brought to light" when we checked the files of Arlington's 1925 grid team and learned "over 150 people, a large crowd," was watching the daytime game.

Crowds of 300 paying customers were unusual as late as the 1940's . . . One of the assistant football coaches at Bloom is Bob Rehberg, former NCAA and Big Ten mile champ . . . Glenbard's football plans were upset when senior halfback letterman Carl Helledy broke his hand . . . The Bard will depend on speed this year.

THE ONLY VARSITY coaching change in the Northwest Conference came about with the resignation of Dan Werhan at Grant. Paul Lewis has worked with Werhan for many years on varsity football so his elevation to full responsibility is only a slight change at that. Lewis is athletic director and varsity baseball coach.

Grant has very few regulars returning from a team which won only one game in a year when many of the schools are blessed with veterans at all positions. We wish Lewis the best of luck. He is a nice fellow to deal with and a popular coach well liked by his boys.

Over at Dundee they have come to the end of an athletic era with the sudden passing of Howdie Spain. Eugene deLacey and Spain came to Dundee close to 30 years ago and as a team put the school on the map in basketball. Spain handled the frosh-sophs and deLacey the varsity and both encouraged the court game and built up a system of training and developing grade school boys on up through high school which paid off in a big way. With Spain gone and deLacey promoted to principal and in his late years of work as head coach, a new crop of coaches is being groomed to take over the future athletic responsibilities at Dundee High.

Palatine Faces 'Toughest Game' On 8 Tilt Card

Palatine of the Northwest conference and Libertyville of the North Suburban, both of whom are rated among the three strongest in their respective leagues, will clash in the non-conference season opener on Libertyville's new field Saturday at 2:30.

The Palatine Pirates have 11 lettermen returning and Libertyville's Wildcats 13. Both schools have unusually heavy turnouts this year for the gridiron sport. Each has beaten the other in the past two years and the set-to Saturday will be the odd game in a three year scheduling arrangement.

Palatine's soph team coached by Bailey and Ellis will play a preliminary game at Barrington at 12:30 Saturday while Art Zimmer's Palatine frosh will travel to Niles for a game at 9 a.m.

COACHES Charley Feutz and "Gene" Moylan have a squad of 46 juniors and seniors competing for varsity starting positions. Material is heavy and backs are experienced and fast. Alan Eck, Dave Cornwell, Jim Penning, Ray Lorden, and Bruce McClung all saw much action in the backfield last year. Heaviest are Cornwell and Penning at 170.

Eck was leading ground gainer and second all-league back last season. John Dilks and John Grabowy are juniors who may break into the lineup. Bob Coates, 170, is being used as a back and a defensive end. Other ends are Douglas Hildebrandt, 185; Dave Nessett, 180; and Dave Schutz, 170. Hildebrandt and Nesset are lettermen and Nesset stands 6'3".

STARTING TACKLES will be selected from four big boys. Lawrence Wheeler 190 is a senior while Leonard Rohde 210, Carl Bondeson 195, and Bill Strand 180 are juniors. Tom Hillesheim 185 was regular center last year but Bill Brock 165 and George Huber 225 are good possibilities. Palatine coaches select guards for speed to help run interference. Best of the lot appear to be Jeff Lehmann 170, Bob Kozy 165, Bob Kolze 150, and Elwood Knutson 160.

Libertyville's new coach, Bob Tunnicliff, has inherited a talented squad with lettermen available for every position. He has veterans in Jim Collins, Tom Jensen, and Jack Graham at ends, Dick Weidner and Craig McRae at guards, Rodney Miller at tackle, Bill Smith at center, and last year's backfield intact including Frank Wellwerts, Chuck Jarrett, Larry Brickerts, and Allan Archbold. Other letter winning backs are Steve Bolander and Jim Gustafson.

As both of the opposing teams have complete backfields from last season and strong defensive lines the opener may turn out to be one of the best battles on their respective schedules.

Backs and ends, two and three strong, are among the veterans at Bensenville high school where co-coaches Tom Meneguin and Frank Novatny have the football squad set for the opener against Leyden JV's Saturday night.

Arlington 'Best In Years,' Hope For Good Season

by BOB PADDOCK

That Arlington Heights high school football squad has the best material in years, is obvious from watching the boys work out, afternoons and Tuesday evening of this week.

But how far they'll get in West Suburban conference competition remains to be seen. From the students' standpoint, the winner of the Maine-Arlington game in the league opener September 24 will take the conference.

But the coaches, around a gridiron a lot longer than "their boys," are saying no such thing. They know they have a quantity of good material but also realize half a dozen other teams may have improved just as much.

LOCAL FANS will have a first-hand opportunity Friday night, September 17, to form their own opinions as the Cardinals oppose Leyden. The Eagles, now in the South Suburban league, are old rivals from the defunct Northeast league and have always been great competitors where Heights is concerned.

The following week Arlington will open its league season under the lights against Maine, a team with plenty of optimism overflowing its ranks. Then there are Hinsdale, rated among the tougher elevens in the league, and always powerful LaGrange, Glenbard, Downers Grove, Riverside-Brookfield and York.

TWO JUNIORS and nine seniors are listed by coaches "Bus" Ormsbee, Bill Beckman and Maurice Kellogg for the Leyden opener. The line averages 189, the backfield 161, and with nine lettermen on hand fans should have a good season ahead of them.

Record sale of season reserved seats indicates fans' support.

Bensenville Has Weight In Line But Plenty Of Other Weaknesses

Bensenville high school gridders will kick off the 1954 season Saturday night under the lights when they play host to Leyden JV's. Bison frosh-sophs will meet Leyden frosh in the preliminary at 6:15.

A scrimmage Saturday somewhat dampened the spirits of co-coaches Tom Meneguin and Frank Novatny. Some of the optimism regarding many boys disappeared as weaknesses in pass defense and blocking appeared. Strong work in these directions was obviously on the docket at Bensenville.

Night workouts under the lights were scheduled for Tuesday and Thursday.

LOTS OF WEIGHT in the line is in prospect for Northwest conference opponents this year. Seven starters in the line average 185 pounds, creditable weight in any high school league.

Ken Gengel weighs just 155 at right guard, but from then on its 175 for John Baumgartner at left end and on up to 217 for right tackle Bob Heinrich. The backfield has Dick D'Hooge, 185, at left half, 160 pound Jerry Grauman at right half and 160 pound Tom Philiben at fullback. Quarterbacking will be Ken Sirotzki at 150 pounds.

THE STARTERS, as per Monday afternoon of this week:

LE—John Baumgartner, 175, Jr.
LT—Ken Capodogli, 200, Jr.
LG—Tom Mushong, 190, Jr.
C—Warren Tiffany, 209, Jr.
RG—Ken Gengel, 155, Sr.
RT—Bob Heinrich, 217, Jr.
RE—Ed Froelich, 155, Jr.
QB—Ken Sirotzki, 150, Sr.
LH—Dick D'Hooge, 185, Jr.
RH—Jerry Grauman, 160, Sr. or Clarence Young, 165, Sr.
FB—Tom Philiben, 160, Jr.

THE FROSH-SOPHS, 55 strong at Bensenville, appeared to need plenty of work before the opener, according to Coach Paul Henry. Coach Henry released a possible starting lineup but here again workouts Tuesday through Thursday might have changed some of the positions.

Once again there appeared to be good weight in the forward wall, starting from Wayne Langguth's 208. But after a 190, 165 and 160, the rest of the line drops to 150-135. At quarterback possibly will be Lars Henrichson at 180, Warren Nelson 155 and Ken Cooper 140 at the halves, and Bob Fritz at fullback.

Probable starters:

LE—Arthur Clark, 155.
LT—Wayne Langguth, 208.
LG—Glenn Dierking, 160.
C—Charles Larson, 135.
RG—Russ Krase, 145.
RT—Harold Jorgenson, 190.
RE—Eugene Palicke, 165.
QB—Lars Henrichson, 180.
LH—Warren Nelson, 155.
RH—Ken Cooper, 140.
FB—Bob Fritz, 150.

Lake Forest To Host Glenbrook

All Northwest conference grid teams go into action this coming weekend in non-conference games preparing for the league openers on September 25. Antioch with a letterman for every position and a good chance to change last year's second place finish into a 1954 championship will play at Wilmot, Wisconsin, Friday night. Glenbrook, topping the circuit in team depth with 20 returning veterans, takes on the first rated team of the North Suburban at Lake Forest Friday afternoon.

Palatine travels to Libertyville Saturday afternoon to engage a highly rated North Suburban eleven.

Palatine's Pirates finished fourth last season winning their last four games and have veterans at all positions. Other Northwest games find Grayslake host to Warren Saturday afternoon, Grant traveling to Zion-Benton Saturday night, Ela-Vernon entertaining Oswego Saturday afternoon. Bensenville at home to Leyden J.V. Saturday night, and Wauconda playing at home Saturday afternoon with St. Marys of Woodstock.

Only coaching change in the Northwest Suburban is Paul Lewis stepping up to varsity coach from assistant at Grant where Dan Werhan resigned to go into business.

Ela-Vernon, coached by Bill Lehmann, won the Northwest grid title last year, undefeated.

Merchants Win NW Little League Title From VFW

by BETTY KIRCHHOFF

Mt. Prospect Merchants whipped the Mt. Prospect VFW, 12-0, for the Northwest Suburban Little League championship Sunday. The Vets had beaten the Merchants Saturday to make a third contest necessary.

Everyone fattened his batting average in Saturday's game. It was a regular old-fashioned slugfest with the final score 14-13 in favor of the VFW. Five hurlers saw action in the long afternoon, three for the Merchants and two for the VFW. Chuck Phalen was the winning pitcher and Don Boedeker the loser. The Vets got off to an early 6-1 lead, but the roof fell in on them in the fourth!

THE MERCHANTS sent 14 batters to the plate in one of their biggest innings of the year as they tallied nine runs on ten hits. They added another run in the fifth to make it an 11-6 ball game.

The VFW wasn't ready to give up. They knotted the game on five in the fifth. Both teams failed to score in the sixth, sending the contest into extra innings.

Fritz Peterson led off the seventh with his third single. George Bork then smashed a home run to put the Merchants ahead once again, 13-11. Phalen then retired the next three batters.

Annual Meeting Of Little League At Arlington Heights

Second "annual meeting" of the Arlington Heights Little League is scheduled for Monday night, September 20, at Recreation park fieldhouse. First meeting was held Monday evening of this week, but a quorum was not present, necessitating second calling.

Main activity of the Sept. 20 meeting will be election of officers. Eligible voters in the Little League election are those who paid the $1.00 registration fee at the start of the season.

Informal discussion was held Monday on umpiring problems and possibilities of expanding the league next year.

Record Reserved Seat Sale At Arlington

Heaviest reserved season ticket sale in history — that is the outlook at Arlington Heights high school where the Cardinals open the home season against Leyden under the lights Friday. The frosh-sophs will start at 6:15 with the varsity title immediately following.

Season reserved seat tickets will be on sale at Millay's newsstand in Arlington Heights until noon Friday, and until 4 p.m in the high school office. The $4.00 season reserved seat ducats for the four home games will also be on sale at the gate Friday night.

Other prices: single game reserved, $1.25; general admission: adults $1.00, students 50c. Other games on the Heights home schedule, all Friday night affairs include Maine Sept. 24, Glenbard Oct. 15, and York Oct 29.

Heights Cross Country Team Host Monday To Palatine Pirates

A brief seven days of workouts will precede the opening meet on the Arlington Heights high school cross country schedule, according to coach Russ Attis. Initial workout was held Saturday with the coach meeting his squad for the first time Monday.

Only bright aspect is the number, 49, who turned out. Absolutely nothing is presently known about the boys, other than Ray Hombostel and John Sheppard, two returning lettermen.

An intrasquad meet was scheduled for Thursday. A meet with Palatine is set for Palatine Monday on the Heights course, the same as last year.

Small Squad, But Willing, Are Card Sophs

A small squad with a desire to learn is facing frosh-soph football coaches John Ligon and Dick Mudge in Arlington Hts. high school this fall. Team roster numbers just 31 boys with the opener Friday night against Leyden starting at 6:15 p.m.

Just how many games the Heights frosh-sophs will take this year is questionable. The boys appear determined to win their share and could develop enough in the next week to equal last year's record.

BIGGEST NEED, other than more players, is satisfactory blocking and tackling, and experience. Because many of last year's freshmen have not come out this year, most of the probable starters Friday night lack experience.

Two boys looked outstanding in scrimmage Monday, Ashley Haase at right half and Chris Blueberg at tackle. Blueberg (190), however, will not be eligible for the Leyden game due to late reporting in conflict with summer vacation.

THE STARTERS:
LE—Dan Vittum, 155.
LT—Jim Hoffman, 160.
LG—Dean Skadberg, 148.
C—Don Plank, 145.
RG—Larry Webber, 140.
RT—Carl Klehm, 192.
RE—Paul Brown, 170.
QB—Tom Jacobsen, 145 or Tom Thackery, 138.
LH—John Brownell, 141.
RH—Ashley Haase, 150.
FB—Jack Palmer, 140, or Ed Meinken, 180.

Others on the frosh-soph squad:

Ends, Bob Cagann, Stan Norman, Dick Miller.

Tackles, Charles Petersen, Bill Hogate, Ray Horcher.

Guards, Avery Smith, Warren Smith, Tony Hansen, Dane Jordan, Joe Berthiauma.

Center, Dave Curtis.

Backs, De Gregory, Dick Fischer, Frank Golle, Pat Harris.

'Chuck' Daugherty Tops Breitling In Class 'C' Golf Title At Inverness

In golf at Inverness golf club "Chuck" Daugherty of Inverness Countryside defeated Fred Breitling of Colfax st., Palatine, in a play-off of a tie of the class "C" club championship. The 54 hole club tournament was held over the Labor Day weekend.

In the match play tournament at Inverness by classes Shelby Stewart defeated Mel Earl in the "A" class final three and two. In "C" class Fred Corliss was the winner in a final match played two weeks ago. In class "B" Jim Zamrazil won a semi-final match 3-2 over Lindstrom of Arlington Heights on Saturday and will meet G. A. McElroy in the finals this next weekend.

Next Wednesday, September 22 the Palatine Lions club will have its fall golf outing and tournament at Inverness.

Three Palatine Men On Dubuque Squad

Forty-four players, only 15 of them returning lettermen, have been reporting to head coach Kenneth "Moco" Mercer for football practice at the University of Dubuque for two weeks, and will continue to do so until November 6, when the Spartans play their last game of the 1954 season.

The Spartans will open their season against Macalester of St. Paul Park, Minn. at home, and then will play two more contests on friendly grounds before traveling to Upper Iowa for their first road tilt. The first game for the Mercermen will be September 18.

Mercer will have to look to his outstanding crop of freshman to supply the difference between a fair and a good season. Thus far, 16 frosh candidates have been issued equipment and all have looked good in practice.

Sophomores on the squad include two Palatine tackles, John Busch and Bob Burden. Both boys weigh 200 with Busch standing 6'2" and Burden 6'. Then, too, there is Norman Stenzel, Pirate hurdler supreme the past four seasons, who is listed as a frosh back, standing 6' and weighing 165. Others on the squad includes Jim Tate of Downers Grove, a 6', 175 pound freshman.

Pick Cheerleaders At Arlington Heights High

Official cheerleaders were selected by Arlington Heights high school football coaches in three days of trials ending Monday, it has been announced by Gav Hughes, gymnastics mentor in charge of the bubbling eyefuls.

Sixty-three girls vied for the twelve positions, including 23 for the varsity, 11 sophomores and 29 freshmen. Selected were six varsity, three sophs and three frosh. The frosh will operate at freshman games, the frosh and sophs at frosh-soph affairs.

Named as freshman cheerleaders were Stephanie Ackley, Sandy Powell and Vicki Mogren For the sophomores it is Judy Johnston, Judy Peterson and Judy Clabaugh. On the varsity cheering squad are Pat Konchar, Nancy Clemens, Barbara Russell, Judi Luehring, Barbara Messner and Joan Keppler.

National Dog Week Show Is Sunday At Wheaton Preserve

The dog will have his day on Sunday.

That's the day for the Chicago Animal Welfare society's National Dog Week celebration at Herrick Lake Forest Preserve, near Wheaton.

Scheduled to begin at 2 p.m., the show will feature three classes of dogs: pets, accompanied by children or adults, who will be judged for the longest whiskers and longest tails; an exhibition of champion and show bench dogs; and obedience demonstrations.

A number of different breeds and kennels will be represented at the show. Refreshments will be served. Mrs. Willard Platt, of Palatine, representing this area at the show, extends an invitation to residents to take their children and dogs to the show.

Further information may be obtained from Mrs. Platt at Palatine 1832.

These five boys are expected to be among the starters in Saturday's football opener for Palatine at Libertyville. An afternoon contest starting at 2:30, the game should be a thriller between the two teams rated among the top three of their respective leagues.

Goetz walked to bring "Half Pint" Sedlac to the plate. "Half Pint" didn't have to show any of his usual batting skill for Glazer tallied the winning run on a passed ball.

FRITZIE PETERSON made his last appearance in Little League an inspiring one. He pitched his team to the 1954 championship against the VFW in the final of a three game series, Sunday, September 12. Fritz twirled his best game of the season giving up only three hits and walking but one batter. Not a runner reached second.

While Fritzie was stopping the VFW, the Merchants were having ther..elves a time. They started with four runs in the second off Denny Hahn, eventually losing pitcher. They added three more in the fourth and five in the fifth to make the final tally 12-0.

FREDDY BOEDEKER also made a fine showing for the afternoon. He smashed two homers that accounted for five of the 12 runs. He slammed the first of the two in the fourth and one inning later walloped the other. This was the first time in his Little League career that Freddy ever hit two round-trippers in succession.

Freddy also made a sensational stop in the sixth inning to rob Minchin Lewis of a hit. He ran way to his left to grab the ball, and while on the ground, threw to first to get Minchin by a hair. That was the best play of the series.

Jim Blake captured batting honors for the afternoon, collecting three for four and scoring two runs.

Hinsdale 'Team to Beat' In West Suburban Loop

No matter how you slice it, Hinsdale is the team to beat in West Suburban conference football circles this fall. Eleven lettermen will head a team in Saturday's opener against Highland Park, on the Red Devils' home gridiron where Hinsdale hasn't lost a game since Maine copped a 27-13 fracas in 1950.

As if that wasn't enough, Hinsdale has lost just three games in their last 30 starts, two of them night encounters. This season six of Hinsdale's league games will be daytime affairs.

Hinsdale, under head coach Harvey Dickinson, rates best defensively with good size and speed, plus plenty of depth in the line. Lack of replacements in the backfield may hurt, though.

BEST PROSPECTS for the Red Devils include:

Dennis Krause (175), halfback, good runner, passer and punter, good defensive man.

Richard Purcell (190), tackle, fast, good blocker, fine defensive man.

Steele Holmes (178), tackle, very fast, excellent team man, top honor student.

John Seul (195), fairly fast, very aggressive, terrific defensive man.

The co-champs with York and LaGrange last year are gone, including all-conference George Boss at end, Dick Hackenberg at half, Dick Sweeney at full and Paul Motta at center, and others.

In the last 30 games Hinsdale has won 25 and tied two. One of their three losses was to Heights, 13-12, last year. Assisting Dickenson at Hinsdale are line coach Bob Thomas and assistant coach Jack Stickels.

LETTERMEN BACK include ends Rolf Blank (170) and John Seul (195); tackles Bill Dowling (174) and Steele Holmes (175); guards Roy Kaseng (160) Dick Purcell (180) and Kenneth Schulze (160); center Tom Klein (150); quarterback John Poswilko (160); and halfback Dennis Krause (174).

Other outstanding prospects include ends Don Campbell, Fred Fisher and George Kallal; tackles Ken Kraml; guards Richard Gruhler and Al Humble; center Howard Dean; quarterback Shorty Carlson; halfbacks Pete Remedi, Paul Morgan, Larry Kellum, David Kempg and Tom Cortesi; and fullback Jack Rezny.

Hinsdale frosh will open their season Wednesday of next week at Joliet, with the JV's hosting Bloom Monday, September 20. Frosh-soph coaches are D. R. McCarthy and Larry Hoff.

65 Out For Frosh Grid At Arlington

Sixty-five out, need blocking and tackling, the opener one week away—that is the picture on the freshman football front at Arlington Heights high school where co-coaches Curtis Larsen and Howard Lester are on the scene.

The opener at home against Crystal Lake is scheduled for Wednesday afternoon, September 22. With 23 boys listed in the backfield and 37 in the line, both coaches are satisfied with the turnout. Eight have been looking good in the backfield with others slated to show what they can do this week.

BLOCKING and tackling, as usual, are the big items in freshman football. Coach Lester has been shifting the boys at all positions in the line to learn their best spots, and hoping to find some boys who can operate on both offense and defense. A couple of these were uncovered Monday but definite starting positions are not known at this time.

Coach Larsen has been shifting the boys at backfield spots, too, during scrimmages. Just where who will start will not be known before next week. Ten new complete uniforms were purchased this year, enabling the entire squad of 65 boys to be in full regalia.

Biggest Question For Illini Gridders Is Spot At Tackle

Biggest questoin-mark as University of Illinois gridders complete their first week of fall drills probably is tackle. Inexperience and lack of depth at this position is obvious.

Coach Ray Eliot has only one letterman tackle on whom he may call in 1954. Other candidates are returning squad members who saw little or no game action last season, and sophomores who have not yet proven themselves.

INDICATING the severity of the situation is fact that a sophomore has been installed as number one right tackle. Percy Oliver, 23-year old Air Force veteran from Miami, Fla (Booker T. Washington), is a capable football player, but his normal position is guard. Only in emergency would Eliot place a sophomore in a first-team tackle spot.

Oliver is a tough, speedy lineman and may be able to come through in the best Fighting Illini tradition. He's not large, though (6-1, 194 pounds), and may find the going tough in the Big Ten.

JOINING OLIVER on the first team is the sole letterman, Roger Wolf, senior from Aurora (West). He played only 61 minutes last season while earning his second "I".

Wolf, who stands 6-1, and weighs 207, has indicated that he has the ability to handle his spot, and other candidates will find it hard to dislodge him.

Returing squad members currently are handling the two second-team tackle positions. Both are question-marks physically, however.

FLOYD McAFEE, 6-2, 210-pound ex--paratrooper from Houston, Texas, was troubled by a bad back last fall, and he's complained of recurrence this season. Rudy Siegert, 6-2, 215-pound junior from Pana, was hobbled by a trick knee in 1953.

If either or both of these juniors can shake off injuries, they will be highly-regarded candidates for the first-team rating.

Main talent behind the first four comes from the sophomore class, although Gus Mackris, 6-2, 225-pound senior from St. Louis, Mo. (Soldan) currently ranks as third-team right tackle. Mackris is a steady workman, but has failed to impress greatly in his two seasons on the squad.

Frank Lane Urges Protective Headgear For Ball Players

A drive is under way against the bean ball. General manager Frank Lane of the White Sox is the man immediately behind the drive, and he has the whole-hearted support of The Sporting News, which had an editorial on the subject in its September 8 issue.

Lane was aroused by the recent injury of Cass Michaels, White Sox infielder, whose skull was fractured in two places when he was hit by a ball pitched by Marion Fricano of the Athletics. Michaels narrowly escaped death. The very next day, Pitcher Steve Gromek of the Tigers was hit in the back by Fricano, and that started a free-for-all between Detroit and Philadelphia players.

A NUMBER of clubs, including the White Sox, already require their players to wear either safety helmets or plastic liners in their caps when they go to bat. Michaels was wearing one of the plastic liners when he was hit, but the ball struck partly below the protective surface.

Lane proposes two measures to curb bean-ball throwing. First, he urges that the pitcher suffer a greater penalty when he hits a man. He recommends that the batsman be given two bases instead of one, as at present. Second, Lane demands a new kind of helmet that will give complete protection against dangerous skull injuries. And third to put teeth into the requirement that helmets be worn, he suggests a fine of $100 against any player who steps into the batter's box without a helmet on. Lane says he'll put his proposal before the winter meetings of the major leagues. He already has sent his suggestions to American League President Will Harridge.

"ALL PITCHERS," Lane says, "try to brush the batter back occasionally, but something has to be done about those who deliberately throw at the batter. There are accidents in the game when the ball 'sails' or the hitter 'freezes' and can't get out of the way," he said, "but I've been around baseball long enough to know they're not all accidents." Lane said it's hard for him to believe there are men in baseball vicious enough to try to hit a man in the head. But men are hit, and he insists that the batter have adequate protection. After all, some pitches travel at the rate of 100 miles an hour, so a baseball can be a deadly missile.

Lane believes that if the penalty for hitting a man were two bases, it would cut down on the recklessness of pitchers. By putting a man in scoring position, it could cost the pitcher the game.

Stan Fills' 73 Wins First In Rob Roy Tue. Golf Sweeper

Stan Fill of the Prospect Hts. Service Station's "Gas House Gang" fired a 36-37 for a 73 to win the low gross honors for the number one man in Rob Roy Tuesday sweeper. An eagle on the second hole of the first nine, and birdies on the 13th and 15th of the second nine, established the strokes necessary to edge Len Arnold, who coupled a pair of 38's for a 76, and second place. Three strokes back of Arnold was Mike McDonald to take third place.

Low net of the first division was won by Norvel Funk, who fired a 76-10-66. Norvel matched par on the front nine and then slid back to a 41 on the back nine to card his 76 gross. Second place was taken by Harv Laufmann of L'Nor Cleaners with a 77-8-69. Harvey coupled 36-41 for his 77 and he, too, faltered on the back nine.

Third was won by the League's president, Marshall Balling, with an 81-10-71. It is known responsibilities of his office hampered Marsh's play this year. Next year he will be free again but in this last article of the season the league extends its thanks for a job well done.

WM. GRINNELL won the gross hoonrs of the second division by carding a 38-40-78. Close on his heels was Bob Cook with an 80. A double bogey by Cook on the first hole proved to be all Grinnell needed to win. Atr Orwiler trailed Cook by one stroke with an 81 and in Art's case it was the third hole that was his undoing.

First low net of this division went to the banker of Mt. Prospect, Carl Hammerl, who carded 39 on the front nine and then came home with 40 on the back nine for a 79-11-68. Second place turned into a battle between the golfing plasterer, Stan Luczak, and another dealer in currency, Johnny Bozik, with Bozik gaining the edge in fractions by posting a 71.08 against Stan's 71.49.

In the third division it was a tight race as only one stroke separated all three men for gross honors. Pat Gilmore posted the winning card of 39-43-82 and was followed by the big long ball hitter from the dairy, Len Dunteman, who posted 41-42-83. Number 3 spot was taken by Bob Peterson when he posted 40-44-84. Bob was a big reason why Smith & Dawson finished 2nd this year.

Low net of this division was taken by Fred Brelsford, who, after a rough season, put together a 41-44 for the best nines he has had this year and posted 85. This return to his regular game of last season put him out in front by himself with a net of 66. Wm. Burns won second with 85-15-70 and third went to Art Thorson 87-15-72.

ROY BOROUGHF ran away with the fourth division in carding 41-46-87. Roy improved as the season went along. Art Henke took second with a 92 and third went to Steve Rowader of the golfing Rowaders from Prospect Heights. Steve's sons, Tommy is playing on the Illinois University team and son, Jimmy, is shooting in the 70's and a threat in the McHenry County Open.

First net was won by Les Moodie with a 91-20-71. Les was the only threat to Roy Boroughf in this division. Walt Schroeder took second with 98-23-75 and third went to Joe DeMichele on 102-22-80. It's good to see Walt getting back into the swing again after being bothered with a bad hand the last half of the season.

The alternate division was won by Al Lohr with 95-19.04-75.96, but only after it went to the fractions because he was hard pressed by Hank Wester who posted 91-14.93-76.07. Al came down with leukemia last year and returned this year as an alternate to see if it would be too much of a strain to play golf in which case he coulddrop out easily. Everything must have gone well because he not only played but turned in some of his best scores on the assignments he drew. Third went to Hap Procunier, the one time All Events title holde in the A.B.C.'s, when he posted 95-18-77.

The banquet will be held this Saturday at the Hartman House in Wheeling. Dinner is scheduled at 7:30. The league hopes sponsors and their wives will make a special effort to attend.

National Dog Week

Another year has rolled past and we find ourselves again at the start of a week set aside when we think about our dogs just a little bit more than we have.

Not only do those of us who have the one, two or three dogs, or perhaps even more, stop and think about such an affair, but it also gives the public at large a little better chance to observe just what is going on in this country of ours relative to what dog owners are trying to do in order to help improve the overall picture and to respect the rights of those who do not own a dog.

The National Dog Welfare Guild, Inc., New York City, which sponsors National Dog Week is a non-commercial and non-profit institution organized by a group of interested persons and organizations and for some 28 years has set about to educate the public, both dog owners and non-owners alike, on the subject of "man's best friend."

The national chairman of this year's observance is Ed Sullivan, newspaper columnist and TV star. Under his leadership the general overall objectives of National Dog Week are again being brought to the attention of people throughout the nation.

The seven point objectives of National Dog Week are: 1. A good home for every dog. 2. Elimination of stray dogs from the streets. 3. Better informed dog-owners. 4. Teach consideration for dogs and all animals. 5. Emphasize the dog's use as a companion, helper and home protector. 6. Secure fair laws for dogs and their owners. 7. Teach respect for the rights of non dog-earners.

As a parting thought on the subject give your dog an extra pat on the head this week along with an extra bone. If you don't own a dog - - - too bad.

Good Eating

Good eating habits are as important in dogs as in children. With a number of people having new puppies in their homes and your editor asked from time to time various questions about feeding a puppy he thought a word to the wise on the following subject might be in order.

A child who is permitted many sweets and snacks between meals may have no appetite for his dinner. A puppy fed tidbits at various times during the day may become "fussy" about eating and refuse to eat his regular meals. When a puppy learns that refusing to eat results in unsatisfied hunger that won't be appeased between meals, he usually will eat well at the proper time. With routine hours of feeding, he will look forward to his meals and doesn't get into the habit of "begging at the table" or odd times during the day.

The way to develop good eating habits is not to allow him to linger overlong at his regular meal. If he doesn't eat after 15 or so minutes, casually, without urging, take his dish away and give nothing else until the next feeding time. If he is a normal healthy pup it won't hurt him to go without a meal or two. By following the above procedure he will soon learn that to refuse to eat his food at regular feeding times will result in an awful empty feeling. Of course if he goes into a long period of turning up his nose at his food, see your veterinarian, as there may be other reasons than just being "spoiled."

Barks and Bays

A lot of new homes are being built these days resulting in exchange of title to the land on which they are being built. It brings to mind that back in the middle ages hunting dogs were prized so highly they were often used as payment for land. Perhaps in those days prices were such that one or two dogs could complete the deal, but at today's costs you would need a kennel full. - - - With the leaves starting to fall and winter and snow on the way it reminds me that the chief assistant to skiing instructor McKenny at Mt. Hood, Ore., is his collie "Shadow", who guides novice skiers on trails.

21-Year-Old Sherwood Has Finest Record Of American Jumpers

Roy Sherwood, 21-year old national champion ski jumper, already has compiled the finest record ever achieved by an American in European competition.

The Salisbury, Conn., youth will display the daring and style that has catapulted him to top rank in the Norge Ski Club's summer tournament at Soldier Field Sept. 17 and 18 at night and Sept. 19 in the afternoon.

Roy is coming into his own at a time when Art Tokle, Art Devlin and Marvin Crawford are approaching the end of their term as leaders in the sport in this country. Although they brought American rating a long way during their best years in international competition, Sherwood is regarded by expert observers as the best qualified to zoom to the top among the world's best.

Ken Lemke On Squad At DePauw University

Ken Lemke, Arlington Heights, freshman at DePauw university, is one of the more than 60 DePauw football players now fighting for berths on the 1954 Tiger eleven at Greencastle, Ind.

An end, Lemke is a graduage of Arlington Heights high school. This year's squad is the largest invited to early drills in recent years, as the Bengals prepare to improve on the 1953 record of seven losses and one tie.

At home the Tigers will meet Evansville, September 18; Valparaiso, October 16; Albion, October 23; and Indiana State, November 6. On the road they tangle with St. Joseph's, September 25; Ball State, October 2; Oberlin, October 9; and Wabash November 13.

Lt. Col. Norman E. Beard (left) receives a certificate of commendation from Maj. Gen. Garrison H. Davidson, commander of Fort Leavenworth, Kan., after retiring with 24 years of active Army service. Lt. Col. Beard is the brother of James F. Beard of Bensenville.

Colonel Beard retired as assistant supply officer at Fort Leavenworth. He entered the army in 1930 as an enlisted man and was commissioned in the national guard in 1941. The Colonel and his wife, Ida Marie, plan to live in Florida.

In Korea

After a period of five months in Japan on duty with the third marine division of the fleet marine force, Lt. Donald E. Koelper's transfer to Korea was effected August 15. While in Japan, Donald served first as a platoon leader and then for a period of three months, as executive officer of "able" Co. 1st BN 9th Marine.

While with the ninth marines, Lt. Koelper's company was almost constantly on the move to one training site or another to insure the readiness required in the far east. The most notable of these maneuvers was the recent landing on the historic island of Iwo Jima and the month long problems on the slopes of Japan's sacred mountain, Fujiyama.

Lt. Koelper is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Rudy Koelper, Northbrook, and is a graduate of Northbrook high school. He began his career in the marine corps in the enlisted ranks in January 1952. A sergeant at the time of his commissioning in April 1953 at Quantico, Va., Lt. Koelper served as a tactics instructor at Camp Pendelton for four months prior to being sent overseas.

Don receives the Herald regularly and like his brother, Delbert at Okinawa, enjoys the sports, especially football news His address is Lt. D. Koelper, 060953 USMC, Motor Transport Service Co., 1st Service Bn, 1st Mar. Div. F.M.F., % F.P.O. San Francisco, Cal

In Virginia

Among the marine officer candidates undergoing six weeks of summer training as members of the platoon leaders class at the marine corps schools at Quantico, Virginia, is John A. Szott, son of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Szott of 2504 Budd st., River Grove. He is now attending Lewis college.

This being their second summer training session, members of this class will be eligible for selection as second lieutenants in the marine corps reserve upon graduation from college.

In Southern California

Captain Raymond C. Tagge, 6520th test support wing, office of flight safety, Laurence G. Hanscom field, Bedford, Mass., has just completed the only college class of its kind in the world—a course in aircraft accident prevention at the University of Southern California. Tagge, the brother of Ernest Tagge, used to call Arlington Heights home before going into the army during World War II on a career basis. He served in the States during that war, but flew many missions in Korea. He is now living in Boston.

Twenty-two air force flight safety officers were especially selected for the six weeks program They will be followed by other groups of officers at regular intervals during the next three years until 340 have been trained.

The officers attended daily lectures in aeronautical engineering, aviation physiology and psychology to enable them to teach flying safety at their bases and make scientific investigations of crashes to help prevent similar accidents.

Each Saturday morning the pilots donned "G-suits" and rode SC's human centrifuge. This is an aircraft cockpit at the end of a 23-foot arm in a closed circular building. When the device whirls around, the pilot is subjected to gravity forces he would encounter in high speed flight. The experience has given the transport pilots a new appreciation of the stress faced by fighter pilots, instructors say.

Great emphasis was placed in the class on the human factor in aircraft accidents. The students were given public speaking training so they will be better able to conduct flight safety classes at their home bases.

In Korea

Pvt. Herbert E. Oesterle, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Oesterle, 462 N. Quintens rd., Palatine, is now serving with the 3d infantry division in Korea.

The "Rock of the Marne" division, which saw bitter fighting in the Iron Triangle and at Outpost Harry, is now training as part of the U.S. security force on the peninsula.

Private Oesterle, a communications chief in the division, entered the army last October and completed basic training at Fort Leonard Wood, Mo. He attended the University of Illinois in Champaign.

In Japan

Natividad Garza, son of Natividad Garza, Rte. 2, Bensenville, recently was promoted to corporal while serving with the 43d engineer battalion in Japan

Corporal Garza, a truck driver, entered the army in December, 1952, and arrived overseas during July 1953.

In Okinawa

Pvt. Delbert Koelper, son of Mr. and Mrs. Rudy Koelper, Northbrook, is now serving at Okinawa. He entered service in December, 1953, after volunteering for draft.

Delbert received his basic training at Ft. Leonard Wood, Mo., then was transferred to Ft. Knox, Ky., where he entered and completed his training as a C.W. radio operator.

Delbert attended advanced radio school and was one of five operators who demonstrated his ability as operator during the recent typhoon, Grace, which lasted three days, leaving the camp without lights and water during that period. Delbert reports this experience as one he will never forget.

Delbert attended Northbrook high school three years, then graduated from Palatine high school. He looks forward to receiving the Herald, especially news of football, and would like to hear from his friends.

His address is: Pvt. Delbert Koelper, U.S. 55450408, Heavy Motor Co., 29th Inf. Reg. APO 331, % P.M. San Francisco, Cal.

In Korea

Pvt. Victor I. Smedstad, son of Mr. and Mrs. Iver H. Smedstad, 22 S. Maple, Mount Prospect, recently joined the 7th infantry division in Korea.

Men of the "Bayonet" division are undergoing intensive training to maintain the peak combat efficiency displayed by the unit from Pusan to the Yalu river.

Smedstad, a 1953 graduate of the University of Chicago, entered the army last October and was formerly stationed at Fort Sill, Okla.

Dionne Quints

The Dionne quintuplets were born on May 28, 1934.

In Kentucky

From Fort Knox, Ky., comes word of Karl Kainitsch, formerly of Des Plaines and employee of Paddock Publications.

"I see the paper is getting bigger and bigger every week 36 pages last week. That's 12 more than your average summer issue a year ago if I remember right. That's what I call growth.

"Seems as though everybody wants to advertise in Paddock papers, now that they've seen their growth and pulling power. Hats off to more of the same.

"The time down here is going by pretty fast. Already I've been here 5½ weeks 4½ more and I graduate from advanced individual tank training.

"Tanks aren't too bad They're not fun though, either. You pull maintenance on them 90% of the time so you can use them the other 10%. Oh, it's just loads of fun—48 ton loads.

"The next 2½ weeks will be on ranges firing and bivouacing. If it's anything like it's been lately, we'll come back with 6 to 8 inches of mud. Oh well, 20 months to go yet and they'll go by just as fast as the first four.

"This post is pretty nice as far as facilities for recreation go."

His address is Pvt. Karl Kainitsch, US 55483568, Co. B, 7th Med. Lk. Bn., Co. A, 3rd, Armd Div., Ft. Knox, Ky.

Is Your Wife Ready To Paint Again? How To Make It Easier

To homemakers, the fall urge is to refurbish. If you have a room that would be better for a coat of paint or two, and if your budget suggests that you do the painting, here's how to go about it:

First, visit a reputable paint dealer. He will explain how to prepare your walls and tell you about paints that are easy to apply with brush or roller.He'll show you brushes that won't shed bristles; tell you how to break in a brush and how to keep it clean. He'll be of great assistance in figuring out the amount and types of paint you will need.

LIKE PLANNING A trip, planning colors for a room is half the fun. Painted walls should blend from room to room to make your home a harmonious whole.

In addition to paint and roller or brushes, there is spackle to fill in cracks and nail holes, a putty knife, sandpaper, turpentine, sponges and buckets. And, of course, you'll need a good, sturdy ladder.

Now get into your oldest clothes and broken-down shoes, and cover your hair with an ancient hat or a bandana.

MOVE ALL FURNITURE to the center of the room and cover it with old sheets or cloths—professional painters call them drop cloths. Newspapers will do. But use plenty of paper, spreading several thicknesses over every inch of table, chairs and sofas. Roll up your rugs and cover them also.

Do not use short cuts in preparing the area to be painted. If the paint is to adhere properly you must first have clean, smooth, dry, greaseless and unwaxed surfaces. For this reason wash walls to be decorated with a soapless detergent. When dry, fill cracks with spackle. In a few hours you can smooth off with sandpaper. Then your wall is ready for the paint.

Start with the highest spot—the ceiling. Have a clean cloth handy for wiping off any paint that spatters on walls or trim. A small brush does the edges where ceiling and wall meet—the roller does the rest.

Once you have the feel of the roller, it's no trick at all. When you have covered one wall you'll find yourself standing back to examine your handiwork and a wave of delight and accomplishment will sweep over you.

If a brush is used instead of a roiler, apply the paint in wide, overlapping arcs, followed immediately with parallel upward strokes. Never attempt to patch over a spot that has already begun to dry. In painting doors, the panels and beveling should be covered first.

IF YOU FOLLOW all directions carefully, you should have a job that even a professional painter would be proud of. And you can honestly say the painting has been a pleasure.

Your colorful new walls may make your furniture look like a hodgepodge. Don't worry, make your furniture a part of the color scheme by painting it all in one color—say gray against clear yellow walls, or princess blue against sandalwood.

Today homemakers are insisting on brightness and warmth in both walls and furniture. They want the dearest place on earth to extend a welcome to family and friends. All it takes is a little planning, a willingness to learn, some patience and energy. You'll find that it can be a lot of fun, too.

Great Books Courses

An opportunity to read the great ideas of the ages and discuss them on a down to earth basis is offered by the Chicago committee for Great Books through an invitation to join one of the Great Books discussion groups.

The Great Books discussion program is free to all adults. The groups meet for two hours every other week and, under the guidance of two discussion leaders, confer on the ideas brought out by a Great Books selection read in advance.

Information on where the nearest Great Books groups are meeting can be obtained from the Chicago representative, Miss Natalie Wells, 37 S. Wabash ave., Dearborn 2-5870.

'Paleface' Trees May Indicate Diet Deficiency

A yellowish complexion in a tree means it may be suffering from diet deficiency. The ghostly pallor is so noticeable even the most casual observer can usually spot a severe condition.

Pronounced yellowing is the clue that the tree isn't getting properly balanced meals. The condition that causes the blanching is grouped under the term "chlorosis." More often than not, it is caused by iron deficiencies. Iron-deficiency victims usually are trees and shrubs requiring acid soil, according to L. F. Irvine, field representative of the Davey Tree Expert Co. Among these are azaleas, rhododendrons white and pin oaks, sweetgum and blueberries.

Like emergency shots for humans, extreme arboreal cases can be brought around with iron injections into trunks or spraying iron salts on foliage. However, soil treatments usually will correct the situation and are somewhat more permanent in their effect. This is a complicated and scientific procedure and should be handled only by the professional tree man.

Examination of individual leaves is the best way to determine if chlorosis is the cause of yellowing. Each leaf will look pallid, with the veins showing up clearly in a seemingly x-ray effect.

This trouble is generally most noticeable in late August and September. Treatment should be initiated at once while foliage still is on the tree. The malady usually gets progressively severe each growing season, and leaves become smaller and more yellow.

Novelist To Be Special Guest At Benefit Auction

Novelist Lillian Budd, author of "April Snow" and "Land of Strangers," will be special guest at the annual White Elephant benefit auction sponsored by the Hospitalized Veterans Writing Project in Barrington.

It will be held September 16 at noon on the country estate of Mrs. K. C. Baughman, Kelsey rd.

The organization depends largely upon the proceeds of the auction for funds to carry on their program of encouraging hospitalized veterans to try creative writing for recreation and rehabilitation.

Mrs. Harold Van Steenderen, chairman, requests interested persons to bring the "white elephant" for auctioning or make a one dollar contribution.

It Pays To Revive Spring Fever In Fall

by OTTO H. AMLING

OTTO AMLING

Please don't put away your gardening ambitions with your summer furniture. Keep them alive — or revive them now —for the rich dividends you'll get when the martins return next spring.

It's so easy to associate planting with springtime. And so difficult to think of planting when nature yawns in anticipation of its winter sleep. But don't succumb. Actually, fall is a golden opportunity for gardeners.

Now the soil is in prime condition and the weather is pleasantly cool for outdoor exercise. Next spring you'll have a thousand chores standing in line. Now you have the gardening time for planting.

NEXT SPRING you'll see week after week slip by when the weather is inclement; when the soil is so wet you can't touch it. You'll wish you had acted last fall.

Instead of vain wishing, stir up your imagination now. Picture fall-planted trees and shrubs and bulbs coming into leaf, and into bloom, without any spring-effort on your part Isn't that a tempting picture? I think so.

My advice to you is to visit your locol grower and take home for planting the growing things that will make your home so much more beautiful next spring and summer and fall.

* * *

DON'T FORGET evergreens. This is the time of year to transplant 'em. And growers have plump, shapely evergreens ready for you. Locally-grown evergreens are the types that thrive in Chicagoland. Moreover, having been locally grown, they will transfer to your home grounds with a minimum of shock.

Here's an inquiry that has come in the mail:

Q. Will you give me planting suggestions for ornamental bushes?

A. Well, first of all they must be planted in a hole large enough to accommodate their roots well spread out. And the soil above and below the roots should be well-dug, granulated and fertilized. But do not let any fertilizer come in direct contact with the roots. Cut the branches back a little. Then keep the shrubs well watered until the ground freezes. Cover the soil above the roots with a mulch — after the ground is frozen — to prevent heaving from the alternate winter freezing and thawing.

Husbands, Beware! Winter Is Coming-Get The House Ready

The first snowflakes are gentle but sometimes frightening reminders of the troubles that besiege the house in winter—condensation on the windows, drafts, cold walls, high fuel bills, leaking roofs.

Now is the time to decide. Are you going to suffer with these problems through the winter or do something right away to prevent them, while there still is time?

The best place to start the prewinter checkup is the roof. If shingles aren't down tight, nail or cement them in place. Otherwise wind and moisture will do their dirty work. Freezing and thawing will complete the job of destruction and you'll have a leak before spring.

AS YOU LEAVE the roof, clean out the gutters and look for spots where they might rust through. Perhaps a coat of asphalt-base paint is needed on the inside.

Shifting to the outside walls, look for cracks around doors and windows that can be sealed with caulking compound. If the walls need new siding and you are plagued with cold interior walls, you can lick both problems at once with insulating siding. You'll insulate the house, give the exterior an attractive modern look and save on the fuel bills.

If the sidewalk or driveway needs repair, don't wait for cold weather when concrete will freeze. Do it now.

MOISTURE VAPOR is a continual problem during the winter if you don't have storm windows. They help cut fuel bills, too, and save your walls from the damage caused by moisture dripping from the windows.

You've probably already had the heating plant checked. But if you haven't don't wait for the dead of winter. Clean and repair it now, even if you have started to use it. Wait until a mild day comes along.

All this may sound like a lot of bother, and it is. But it saves money and grief in the long run. So do your checking now before the first snowflakes are followed by snow drifts.

DESIGN FOR LIVING

Building - Remodeling - Improving

In the Shadow of + + + The Steeple

by William O. McGill

A gallows was drawn on one of the signs carried by the pickets outside McGaw Hall in Evanston. Another sign carried the information that a "100% Communist was anti-Christian."

Inside McGaw Hall, the object of the picketers' scorn, Josef Hromadka, was saying to the Assembly of the World Council of Churches, "A godless world is much less dangerous than a paganized Christ-less Church."

Speaking to churchmen, he was pointing out the danger and the fallacy of the "human effort to get hold of God, to subordinate Him to our thoughts and systems, to use Him as our ally in ideological, political and social struggles . . ."

One has to remember that Dr. Hromadka happened to be a guest professor at Princeton during the year that World War II started. It was not possible for him to return to Hungary. He "sat out" the war in reasonable comfort as contrasted with the suffering and loss which took place in his native land.

The political vagaries of the post-war world left Hungary in the position of being east of the "iron curtain" when it was rolled down. This appears to be the crux of the Hromadka dilemma. Having been delivered from the sufferings of war by circumstances, could he now seek deliverance from the sufferings of occupation by virtue of having powerful friends.

There are a number of ministers and priests who have faced this question these years of the "iron curtain." Some of these have chosen to flee with their families; some have chosen martyrdom; some have elected to minister to the people God called them to serve. There are probably some who have become full-fledged proponents of the regime in power, but these are hardly part of our concern with an ethical and spiritual dilemma.

Behind Hromadka's decision to stay and minister, there are probably two factors. One is a conscience-stricken sensitivity to his comfort during the war. The other is quite possibly a reaction to the American churches. Our identification of God and our country was not as blatant as in World War I, but it was (and is) none the less real.

"What a miracle," said Hromadka, "to be truly free in our attitude to men." But this freedom is the freedom of Jesus Christ who was a servant of all men, accepting the burdens of all men — those who accepted him and those who rejected him.

"He was in a majestic way independent from anything in the world. He was the Lord. But he proved to be the Lord exactly on the cross, in the moment when all the misery of the world and of all men took hold of his human existence."

We need a great amount of Christian love and consideration in order to understand the terrible choices and difficult responsibilities which some churchmen are facing in the world today. We may not always approve the choice, but humility compels us to be hesitant in deciding what we would do in similar circumstances.

Subject: ART FAIR

Well, we had it, and we're not sorry! . . . Not enough artists, and it meant a lot of "totin' " for us, getting pictures set up and then, under cover, each evening - plus inevitable small tasks such as signs and displays and so on . . . "Labor Day Holiday" was just that - without the holiday - but we got acquainted with some fine artists - and a lot of very nice people dropped in . . . There were folks from Maywood, Oak Park, Skokie, LaGrange, Evanston, etc., as well as near neighbors "just passing by" and we are more than ever convinced that public interest in Arts and Crafts is high - and the line between people who "view" and those who "do" is thin . . . Many "dabblers" are seeking other creative outlets; again and again, we were asked about classes - where and when. It seems that "housewives" in particular have trouble fitting available Instruction Classes into their busy schedules; most of them seemed to think that a day-time weekly class - running from about 1:30 to 3:00 - would be an ideal time.

To make a real dent in the busy Highway traffic, we should have had displays on both sides of Glencoe Rd., right up the hill - and to get a real Greenwich Village atmosphere the artists should have been on hand to price and explain . . . It was so hot that we couldn't blame them for seeking refuge indoors - but if the public is interested enough to brave the heat, then the artists should be, at least, available.

Another thing we learned was that every exhibit should either be mounted or framed - and of course, displayed as close to eye-level as possible . . . Next year . . . more artists, more exhibits . . . will result in more "public" . . . There is room for a Northwest Artists Association. If you are interested, please contact us. It will take "group effort" to establish a group!

Christmas card story: We started "sampling" in June, from dozens of concerns all over the country - including samples from importers. Orders trickled in during July and August and carefully watching buying trends, we really started to stock, last month . . . Some things are quite apparent . . . lots of people are tired of "imprints" (although we have an excellent selection - ranging from 50 for $1.50 and on up) and are all for the individuality of "unprinted" cards, to which they will add their own signature . . . We have hundreds of sample boxes - the cream of the crop - and the "dollar" boxes represent unusually good value - containing from 12 to 26 cards in each box, and range from abstract and modernistic to old-fashioned traditional art . . . all kinds . . . all prices . . . including Make-It-Yourself kits, using beautiful foil wraps . . . We find lots of people interested in "better" cards - handsome stock in large sizes which can be ordered by the dozen - and then they plan to sign their own names with perhaps a very personal greeting . . . One large, beautiful heavy-stock foil in dark red has a simple greeting and decoration on the front cover in white; the inside is completely blank, ready for a short Christmas letter . . . a dozen of these cards for $1.50 - a hundred for $13.50.

We have "Religious" boxes, expressing a deep and cherished faith in the holy meaning of Christmas and such cards are a wonderful way of remembering friends and dear ones - lighting the "candle of hope" in the hearts of the recipients. Ranging the field - from the sublime to the ridiculous - are the gay, merry "funnies" - and the clever, down-to-earth humor of the modern "Cartoon" artists . . . There are reproductions of famous paintings (and again, there is choice of modern or traditional) ranging in price from $1.50 a dozen to $4.50 a dozen - every one of them a triumph of lithographic art and engraving - or some special process such as "flocking" (including velvet day-glow in flourescent) hairline sparkles . . . bold primitives . . . delicate rainbow-shadings . . .

Garage Or Carport Has Variety Of Uses

A garage or carport can be much more than a place for an automobile, according to the University of Illinois small homes council in a circular "Garages and Carports" just issued.

It can provide:

—Convenient and cheap storage area for garden equipment, porch and lawn furniture, bicycles, baby carriages, etc.

Utility area for laundry equipment.

—Clothes-drying space.

—Workshop area.

—Play space for children on rainy and cold days.

—Terrace space or porch for outdoor living.

—Shelter for the house against winter winds.

These all should be taken into account in deciding on whether to build a garage or carport, how big it should be, and where it should be located.

Other suggestions in the circular include:

The garage or carport area serves as the principal entrance court to the house and should be recognized as such. Both front and service doors should be easily accessible from the driveway.

The drive should be as straight and short as possible.

One pedestrian door is recommended in addition to the garage door.

At least one operating window is necessary.

Single copies of "Garages and Carports" are available free from the small homes council University of Illinois, Urbana, until Oct. 15, after which they will be 10 cents, the same as the other small homes council circulars for home builders and owners.

LIVING ROOM is above average in size and seems larger because of the use of glass, sloping ceilings and the open planning which allows living room activities to expand into the dining area. Most Modular Homes are built with a fireplace. It adds warmth and friendliness to the living area. The room is easily adapted to either modern or period furniture.

DINING ROOM is an extension of the living room and may expand into the living area when necessary. A partial barrier separates the dining room and kitchen. One variation of the barrier is a pass-thru which gives the dining room a feeling of spaciousness by letting the eye carry into the kitchen above it but still blocks the direct view into the kitchen.

KITCHEN area is compact but is larger than that found in most houses of this size. There is adequate space for eating in the kitchen. Cabinets are natural birch and sink top and the wall behind are laminated plastic.

BEDROOMS are ample and contain large sliding door closets. The master bedroom has two closets. A built-in vanity with glass top and a large mirror is available for the master bedroom, if desired. Some plans have a floor to ceiling window in the master bedroom which adds visual space and makes the room seem larger and brighter. Other plans have high windows in bedrooms for privacy and more flexibility of furniture arrangement.

Bartlett Countryside New School Dedicated by Puffer and Thomas

School patrons may not know how it was done, but Unit School District No. 250, the first such district in Cook county, has built a modern three-room school and basement at a cost of only $71,000, including the purchase of a five acre site. It is located at Bartlett and Schaumburg rds., in the center of the district and serves an exclusive farming area. Subdivisions have not yet gotten that far.

Its dedication was considered of such importance that the PTA of the school asked the consent of the board of education to take over the official dedication—and they did an excellent job Sunday afternoon, Sept. 12.

The dedication speakers were two outstanding school men, Noble J. Puffer, Cook county superintendent of schools, and F. C. Thomas, superintendent of the Barrington schools. F. C. Jensen, PTA president, announced the numbers on the program.

In the minds of the school children the most important part of that program was probably the unveiling of the sign which officially gave the school the name of "Hanover Countryside."

With the opening of this school, three one-room schools were closed forever. They are Hilltop, Washington and Hoosier Grove. The first two districts had been in existence nearly 100 years. The Hoosier school district, known as 43½, was not formed until early this century.

Among those present were two men, 82 and 87 years old respectively, who were the oldest persons present who attended the original schools. Herman Kamlage, 87, who resides on the same farm where he was born, drove up in his car. When five years old, in 1873, he entered the Washington school.

Another old timer was Emil Struckman, 82, who entered the Hilltop school in 1880. After graduating from the Elgin Academy and Ann Arbor, he became a school teacher and until ten years ago taught school in the west, starting in Montana. He retired ten years ago and now resides in Bartlett.

Two other oldtimers who received their early education in the Hilltop school in the 1890's were August and C. H. Volkening.

Noble J. Puffer, in his talk, paid tribute to taxpayers of 43½, who were willing to remain a part of Unit District 250, until its building program could be completed.

The farms which have recently become a part of the Schaumburg Consolidated school district, will continue to pay bond taxes in Bartlett as well as the Schaumburg.

"Patrons of School District 250 should have nothing but the kindest of feelings for those who left them to become a part of the Schaumburg district," said Puffer.

Mr. Puffer was talking to old friends. Starting in 1926, for 8 years as assistant county superintendent of schools, he had charge of the Hanover township schools and later for 12 years as county superintendent he has had a part in the welfare of the school of that area.

McClaughey & Associates of Park Ridge were the architects and O. W. Potter of Wauconda was the general contractor. The building has acoustic ceilings and all of the features to be found in the modern school, including individual sinks in each room.

Hanover Countryside school is the second building of District 250. The other school is at Ontarioville at which school is located the office of Alfred Price, superintendent of both schools. An addition of two rooms has recently been added to the school at Ontarioville. They will be dedicated in the near future.

Mrs. Zella Mills is principal of the Hanover schools. Other teachers of the Hanover school are Mrs. Snowhite and Mrs. Duffy. There are 65 pupils in the Ontarioville school and the Hanover school 75.

OLD FENZ STORE, HALL, TAVERN IN SCHAUMBURG DESTROYED BY FIRE 30 YRS. AGO.

JUST AROUND THE CORNER

FROM PATTY McARDLE

Dear Peg:

"This is the day!", exclaimed Megan, as she climbed out of bed this morning—and this surely was THE day for her, another milestone about to be passed and a new adventure about to begin. It was to be Megan's first day in kindergarten. We had been talking about kindergarten for such a long time, it was hard to believe that the day had actually arrived.

Thank goodness I didn't have to brave the day alone. Mother McA was to drive down from Harvard and meet us at the apartment, then go over with us to school. During breakfast I quizzed Megan on her knowledge of colors. When, staring at the porcelain sink, she could find nothing that was white in the kitchen, I gave up and turned to counting.

I SHOULD HAVE STAYED with the colors. She couldn't count farther than twelve, although just the other day she counted to twenty-five and could have gone on! In my anxiety I tried to console myself with the thought Megan just found no challenge or stimulation in the silly questions I was asking her. High time she became immersed in the intellectual atmosphere of the kindergarten.

Right on the dot of 8:30, and just as I was removing the last little plastic curler from Megan's hair, Gramma arrived—so attractive in her trim, dark plaid suit and little cute black velvet hat. As she always has for even the smallest Special Occasion, she had gifts for all of us: a pretty plaid skirt, red sweater and blouse for Megan, a blue sweater and plaid overalls for Bridget, and for me, a new book and the lovely, old Oriental petal-jar that I've always admired.

IT WAS CLOSE to 9:00 o'clock—the scheduled hour for the commencement of kindergarten—when we tied a crisp bow in the back of Megan's bright red, full-skirted dress and slipped on a white sweater. After I had combed out her curls and was about to put on her little angora cap, she wanted to see herself in the mirror. "It doesn't look like me," she said staring at her reflection, "I look like I have a wig on!" (Megan's naturally straight hair received little attention during the summer months). After adjusting Megan's hat, we started in a solemn procession down the steps and out to Gramma's car, and in thoughtful silence drove the six blocks to school.

Many of the children whom we met while registering had already gathered in front of the lovely, new, brick school building. Megan spotted her teacher standing with the children and was eager to get out of the car and over to her. We joined the group, after parking the car, and I asked the teacher if we might take a peek at the new kindergarten rooms before she and the children went in. Mother McA had not seen them, and I was eager for her to see the lovely place in which her first granddaughter was to play and learn.

SHE WAS AS IMPRESSED with the bright, cheery rooms, divided by an adjustable glass partition, as I knew she would be. The floors are sunny yellow rubber tile and the walls, where there are not shelves, cabinets or blackboards, show the brick construction. The south wall is all window. There is a stainless steel sink with formica-top drain boards on either side—scaled down to little child size. The room has its own lavatory and drinking fountain to say nothing of a large, sunken, tile fish pond of contemporary design, which is soon to be stocked with tropical fish!

As Mother McA and I stepped out of the kindergarten rooms and into the corridor, we saw the teacher and her brood approaching. There in the group of little children was Megan looking so tiny, so sweet and so defenseless (I really wanted to take her right back home with me for a few years). When she saw us she only waved quickly, gave us one of her self conscious little smiles and without looking back, walked right through the door and into her kindergarten room.

My love,
Patty.

QUITE CONTRARY

BY MARY

For some strange reason our cherry trees have jumped the gun and shed their leaves. We are wondering if they think winter is here or they are just tired of it all. They look so bare and forlorn in the midst of all the greenery still about. We could wish that they hadn't done it; we just hate previews of coming attractions.

We read in a paper the other night that a book is coming out that is going to tell all about Christian Dior. Won't that be dandy? We can see the line forming now at the bookstores. All of us women certainly have enough morbid curiosity to find out just what kind of mind beats beneath that insane exterior. We are willing to wager that underneath it all he really just hates women and when he was a child some little girl took his lollipop from him.

The man about the house has taken a subscription to Fortune magazine. We have always admired Fortune because it looked and was so expensive. The covers have such wonderful pictures of steel mills and such and the inside, we have discovered, is just fascinating. If one is in the market for a punch press or a grinder, they are to be had.

The articles are certainly wonderful reading. How Henry Ford II took an ailing company that was losing ten million dollars a month and with a whiff put the poor old outfit back on its feet left us simply breathless. We must confess that we had never been aware that the company that started with the tin lizzie was poorly. It frightened us to know that something we had always counted on had been on the sick list. The fact that it is now convalescing has just about made our day a sunny one. We conclude, however, that most of Fortune is for the boys who started out as office clerks and have more than made the grade. It seems to be the Blue Book of the business world. We have taken our last plunge into its depths. Besides, we are not in the market for either an airplane motor nor an open hearth furnace. They would most certainly clutter up the living room.

The routine around the house is settling into the winter grind. Now that school has started the norm has been reached. At our particular abode, the norm is about as confusing as the abnorm.

THE MAILMAN'S CORNER

BY LELAND ELLIS TRUXELL

Most of us think a sharp line can be drawn between those of us who are insane and those who are normal. Actually, there is none. The rank and file of our population runs from the so-called "sane" person to violent and helpless individuals in mental hospitals. In each of us so-called normal persons there is a beginning of insanity and in a great many people it is quite evident.

The confirmed sour-puss is considerably across the line from normal people. His or her attitude under all conditions is one of habitual jealousy, a feeling of being persecuted. His or her reaction runs all the way from violent outbursts of temper to a constant, smouldering of hatred, viciousness and vindictiveness.

THERE ISN'T MUCH anyone can do with such people. Fighting them is futile. Giving in with meek obedience is equally futile. No one can console them, reason with them, appease them. Ignoring such persons completely, assuming an air of indifference to what they say or do, or avoiding them like a plague are perhaps the only ways to tolerate them.

It almost seems that such people are, in Biblican language, "possessed of the devil." Some fierce inner compulsion forces them to hate the world and everything in it, and there doesn't seem to be anything they or anyone else can do to change them. Needless to say, they are continually at war within themselves, either subconsciously or consciously, and even they do not know why.

PSYCHOLOGISTS say that similar disagreeable traits which people acquire can be a product of a loveless, warped or unhappy childhood. If such is the case, and it very well could be, it behooves all of us to let our children know that they are loved, wanted and appreciated. If we do not love children it is far better not to have them at all, or if we do, to see that they are adopted by people who can give them the love, care and devotion which we ourselves lack in our personalities.

THE FENCE POST

McCarthy Exaggerated

I read with keen interest your "Mailman's Corner" for August 19 in Paddock Publications. Of particular interest to me was the reference to the junior senator from Wisconsin. I am writing to you because I cannot, in good conscience, remain silent.

I am one of those who do not approve of the senator's work. I have never met him nor do I know of anyone with whom he has been acquainted. I do not know of his personal habits, tastes, or mannerisms. Thus, I am not in any position to judge him as an individual in society. I MUST judge his work, and so must most Americans. His judgement as a man is up to a higher power.

On the basis of his works, I must say this about the man: he is not selfless, sincere, or fearless. On the basis of his works, he appears to be self-centered and ambitious. His sole contribution to the fight against internal communism has been to make the public aware of the danger, and even that he has now undone. He has so exaggerated and beclouded the national issue that we are losing sight of the larger, global danger. He has spotlighted and promoted himself to such a degree — at the expense of his country's and his party's welfare — that many responsible opponents of communism, including the FBI, privately admit he has hindered their work. McCarthy is interested in himself.

He has failed to unearth one significant communist. The Hiss exposes and subsequent investigations were conducted on a dignified, lawful plane many months before McCarthy began his quest for publicity.

Senator McCarthy's political future depends upon his continuing to make his "crusade" against communism a national issue. His importance has been grossly exaggerated.

The communist threat in the world is a serious and terrifying one. We must be ever alert and courageous. These perilious times call for bold deeds and bold words in the traditional American manner. Let us not surrender our fundamental liberties to an ambitious demagog who is capitalizing upon the people's fear for his own personal aggrandizement.

Realtors Endorse Puffer Candidacy

In an open letter to realtors of this area, a non-partisan realtors' committee this week urged the re-election of Noble J. Puffer, Cook county superintendent of schools.

"He has at all times operated his office on a non-partisan and strictly professional basis," wrote William C. F. Kolmar, committee chairman, in endorsing Puffer's candidacy. "He has felt that politics have no place in the school field and, to this end, the political party to which he belongs has left him free to do the best job possible."

Holmes also pointed out that Puffer had made non-partisan appointments of real estate examiners and cooperated in every way with the Illinois Association of Real Estate Boards in promoting amendments to the Real Estate Brokers' License law, as additional protection to the public.

Parking Authority

In line with my previous statement rejecting the purchase and installation of parking meters by ordinance, I would appreciate an opportunity to follow thru with a recommendation which I believe can bring about a final solution to our local parking problem.

The final soluion is simply one of providing ample parking facilities immediately adjacent to shopping areas and also provide additional commuter parking space. To accomplish this, I propose that we submit to referendum, this April, or sooner, the creation of a municipal parking authority whose sole authority would be delegated to the purchase and administration of publicly owned municipal parking lots for commuters and shoppers needs.

There are several locations that seem to fit this need ideally, they being located in the following north and south areas:

Location 1 —That area now containing residences bounded by Dunton to Vail, from Campbell to Sigwalt st. (west of Jewel Tea Co.).

Location 2—The residential area located on North Dunton to Evergreen, from Miner to Eastman st. (east of the IGA).

These municipal parking lots could be attractively landscaped, drained, paved and lighted, thereby improving these present areas. The old buildings can be moved to new locations.

This recommendation would-

1. Eliminate parking meters in front of residential areas.
2. Eliminate parking meters in front of places of business.
3. Eliminate parking meters in our beautiful railroad parks.
4. Confine parking meters entirely to municipal parking lots (if they are deemed necessary to provide revenue to offset the cost of purchasing and acquiring these properties).

We can all agree that there is much to be desired to improve the business areas as well as the shopping facilities of our town. This suggestion could easily provide the spark of incentive needed to bring about a program of renovation on the part of businessmen. We must be eager to help develop an intense desire to establish a long range civic improvement program which will beautify our entire village thereby maintaining increasing property values.

Let's not spend $50,000.00 to merely place parking meters throughout certain business and residential areas without creating or providing one additional single parking space. Meters quickly ruin the sidewalk appearances because they soon become bumped, bent, and distorted.

Instead, let's spend that money wisely, acquiring the space needed to permit the orderly progress and development of existing shopping facilities, and give the shoppers the quickly adjacent, handy parking services they want and demand today. Also we must provide the commuters with drained, paved, well lighted and protected, adequate parking space.

Should outside shopping centers develop to the point that municipal parking lots were no longer needed, the properties could be sold and purchase costs returned to the taxpayer.

Sincerely,
Charles C. Rehfeldt

Newsstand Of The Week

The men are lucky to be allowed in the house at Tri-Corner Service, Rand road just east of Palatine road, where the two wives and four daughters have taken over. The combination service station, newsstand and food store is another of the 60 newsstands selling almost 8,000 copies of Paddock Publications weekly.

When brothers Frank and Bill Pietrolonardo were looking for a business venture five years ago they picked the Rand road site. They have operated the gasoline station, with towing and snow plowing, ever since while their wives, Bill's Mary (on the left) and Frank's Gertrude, have taken over the newsstand and grocery store.

Bill and Mary's two daughters are Anna Marie (7) and Antoinette (2). Frank and Gertrude's two girls are Anne (13) and Mary (10).

NOTICE
PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS

Pursuant to law in such case made and provided, public notice is hereby given that the following proposed amendments to the Illinois Constitution will be submitted on a separate blue ballot to the electors of the State of Illinois for adoption or rejection at the General Election to be held on November 2, 1954.

LEGISLATIVE APPORTIONMENT AMENDMENT
Article IV

Section 6. The General Assembly in 1955 shall redistrict the state for the purpose of electing state senators. There shall be fifty-eight senatorial districts. Cook county shall have twenty-four of the districts. These twenty-four districts shall be located as follows: Eighteen in the territory that is within the present corporate limits of the city of Chicago; and six in the territory that is in Cook county outside such corporate limits. The remaining one hundred and one counties of the state shall have thirty-four of the senatorial districts.

All senatorial districts shall be formed of contiguous and compact territory. In their formation, area shall be the prime consideration.

The senatorial districts shall be numbered one, two, three, and so forth, including fifty-eight. Each such district shall elect one senator, whose term of office shall be four years. Senators elected in districts bearing even numbers shall be elected in 1956 and every four years thereafter; and senators elected in districts bearing odd numbers shall be elected in 1958 and every four years thereafter.

Section 7. The General Assembly in 1955 and in 1963, and every ten years thereafter shall redistrict the state for the purpose of electing state representatives. There shall be fifty-nine representative districts. In the 1955 redistricting Cook county shall have thirty of the districts. These thirty districts shall be located as follows: Twenty-three in the territory that is within the present corporate limits of the City of Chicago; and seven in the territory that is in Cook County outside such corporate limits. In the 1955 redistricting, the remaining one hundred and one counties of the state shall have twenty-nine of the representative districts. In redistricting subsequent to the 1960 census and thereafter the fifty-nine representative districts shall be divided among (1) that part of Cook County that is within the present corporate liits of the City of Chicago, (2) that part of Cook county that is outside such corporate limits, and (3) the remaining one hundred and one counties of the state, as nearly as may be, as the population of each of these three divisions bears to the total population of the state.

Representative districts shall be formed of contiguous and compact territory, and shall contain, as nearly as practicable, a population equal to the representative ratio; outside of Cook County, such districts shall be bounded by county lines unless the population of any county entitles it to more than one representative district. The representative ratio for the entire state shall be the quotient obtained by dividing the population of the state by fifty-nine. No representative district may contain less population than four-fifths of the representative ratio.

Three representatives shall be elected in each representative district in 1956 and every two years thereafter. The term of office shall be two years. In all elections of representatives aforesaid, each qualified voter may cast as many votes for one candidate as there are representatives to be elected, or may distribute the same, or equal parts thereof among the candidates as he shall see fit; and the candidates highest in votes shall be declared elected.

Section 8. In performing its duties under Sections 6 and 7 of this amendment, the General Assembly shall redistrict and reapportion in a single legislative enactment. If, however, the regular session of the General Assembly in 1955 as to both senatorial and representative districts or in 1963, or any ten years thereafter as to representative districts fails by the first day of July to redistrict the state into such districts, then the redistricting shall be accomplished by a commision. Within thirty days after such first day of July, the state central committee of each of the two political parties, casting the highest votes for governor at the last preceding gubernatorial election, shall submit to the governor of the state a list of ten persons. Within thirty days thereafter, the governor shall appoint the commission of ten members, five from each list. If either of the state central committees fails to submit the list within the specified time, the governor, within the specified time, shall appoint five members of his own choice from the party of such committee. Each member of the committee shall receive $25.00 a day, but not more than $2,000 for his service.

This commission shall redistrict the state into senatorial districts and into representative districts in the manner specified above. This comission shall file with the secretary of state a full statement of the numbers of the senatorial and representative districts and their boundaries. No such statement shall be valid unless approved by seven members of such commission.

After such statement is filed, senators and representatives shall be elected according to the statement and the districts therein determined, until a redistricting and reapportionment are thereafter made by the General Assembly as provided in this amendment. If however, the statement is not filed within four months after the commission is appointed, it shall stand discharged. Thereupon, all senators, scheduled for election at the next election for state senators, and all state representatives shall be nominated and elected at the next election from the state at large. Following such an election at large, the General Assembly at its next regular session shall perform the duties specified in this amendment. But if such a General Assembly fails to perform these duties, then another commission, as specified in this Section 8, shall be appointed in like manner, with like duties, and power, and with like effect; and so forth until a valid senatorial and representative redistricting and reapportionment are secured in this 1950 decade and each decade thereafter. But there can be only one valid senatorial and representative redistricting and reapportionment during a particular decade.

THURSDAY, SEPT. 16, 1954

Schedule

While this amendment of Sections 6, 7 and 8 of Article IV, if adopted shall be effective upon its adoption, nevertheless the General Assembly meeting in 1955 or 1956 shall consist of fifty-one senators and one hundred and fifty-three representatives as provided in Sections 6, 7 and 8 of Article IV of the 1870 constitution of Illinois before the adoption of this amendment.

If the 1955 General Assembly in its regular session redistricts and reapportions, as required, or if upon its failure the commission does so, then those senators, who are still residents in odd numbered districts and who were elected in 1954, will retain their offices until the expiration of their terms. But in those odd numbered districts, as created in 1955, where no senator elected in 1954 has been a resident for one year next preceding the election in 1956, a vacancy in the office of senator for such districts exists. Likewise, a vacancy exists in the office of senator in such odd numbered districts where two or more senators elected in 1954 are residents of the district. In either case, a senator in such an odd numbered district shall be elected in 1956 for a term expiring in 1958. The main purpose of this schedule is to provide for a senate with a full quota of members in 1957-1958.

Any senator elected in 1954, who is eliminated from his office by the redistricting, and who is not reelected in 1956 for the two year term, shall be paid the salary for 1957-1958, that he would have received if he had been able to serve the full term of his office and shall receive such other benefits as would have accrued if he had served such term.

Form of Ballot

The proposed amendment to Article IV will appear upon the constitution ballot in the following form:

PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO SECTIONS 6, 7 AND 8 OF ARTICLE IV

(Legislative Apportionment ammendment)

Explanation of Amendment

This amendment would direct the General Assembly to redistrict the State for the purpose of electing one Senator from each of 58 senatorial districts and three Representatives from each of 59 representative districts.

As concerns the Senate, area would be the "prime consideration" in the formation of the 58 districts. Downstate would be entitled to 34 districts and Cook county to 24 districts, 18 of them in Chicago and six in the county outside Chicago.

As concerns the House of Representatives, the 59 districts would be based upon equal population as nearly as practical, except that in the redistricting prior to the 1960 census, downstate would be entitled to 29 districts and Cook county to 30 districts, 23 of them in Chicago and seven in the county outside Chicago. The three Representatives from each district would be elected by cumulative voting, as at present.

Should the General Assembly fail to redistrict as directed, this duty would fall on a commission appointed by the Governor. The State central committies of the two major parties would each submit a list of 10 nominees to the Governor, who would appoint five from each list, making a 10 member commission. Should the commission fail to redistrict, Senators coming up at the next election and all Representatives would be elected from the State at large. If the resulting General Assembly still fail to redistrict, a new comission would be appointed, as before, and should this second commission fail to redistrict, legislators would again be elected at large—and so forth until a valid redistricting is secured.

STATE TREASURER AMENDMENT

PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO SECTIONS 1, 2 AND 3 of ARTICLE V
Article V

Section 1. The executive department shall consist of a governor, lieutenant governor, secretary of state, auditor of public accounts, treasurer, superintendent of public instruction and attorney general, who shall each hold his office for the term of four years from the second Monday of January next after his election and until his successor is elected and qualified. They shall, except the lieutenant governor, reside at the seat of government during their term of office and keep the public records, books and papers there, and shall perform such duties as may be prescribed by law.

Section 2. Soap Used Needlessly In Softening Water

In a typical area where water is moderately hard, as much as 1.5 pounds of soap may be destroyed for every 100 gallons of water used in bathing, doing the home laundry, and cleaning.

This is sheer waste, the Water Conditioning Foundation points out, and entirely unnecessary with modern water softening equipment available to remove the soap-destroying hardness.

IF SOAP DID not act as a water softener, there would be no problem of waste involved in using it with hard water. However, when soap is added to hard water, a certain amount—more or less, depending upon the degree of water hardness—is used up in taking out the hardness.

This is so much lost soap, as far as washing effectiveness is concerned.

Furthermore, in softening water soap produces an objectionable by-product—the familiar hard water soap scum. This shows up in various forms as the ring in the bathtub, a dulling film on freshly-washed silverware and glassware and the tattle-tale gray cast on freshly-laundered clothes.

IN HARD WATER areas, families lacking water softening equipment find it necessary to use one of the numerous packaged detergents with water softening properties.

Since soap is cheaper and produces the most satisfactory results when used with soft water in the modern automatic clothes washer, this is a compelling argument for installing home water softening equipment.

Modern Etiquette

by ROBERTA LEE

Q. Would it be good form to begin a letter "My dear Sir," and close it with "Cordially yours"?

A. No. The beginning and ending of a letter should show the same degree of formality. "My dear Sir" is your most formal salutation, and it would be better to close that letter with "Respectfully yours."

Q. Is it necessary for a man who habitually carries a pipe in his mouth to remove the pipe when speaking to a woman?

A. Most certainly he should remove the pipe.

Q. How many salt and pepper shakers should be used on a dinner table?

A. A pair at every other plate is the most convenient placement.

Q. Is it necessary for the bride's parents to mail an engraved wedding invitation to the bridegroom's parents? Most certainly they know that they are invited.

A. The bridegroom's parents should receive a formal invitation, the same as any other guest. To neglect to mail them one is a breach of good manners.

Q. Is it all right for a person to insist upon giving a tip in a restaurant, which observes the "no tipping" rule?

A. No. It is not only unnecessary to give the tip; but it is inconsiderate to the management for one to insist upon breaking the rules.

Q. Should ice cream, served in a sherbet glass, be eaten with the spoon or fork?

A. With the spoon. Ice cream is eaten with the fork only when it is served with pie ala mode.

Q. It happens that I don't care at all for alcoholic beverages. May I properly refuse drinks at parties, or does this offend my host?

A. There is no reason why a polite, "No, thank you," should offend your host, if you make sure that your manner of refusal doesn't proclaim disapproval. A perfect host or hostessess always has non-alcoholic beverages for those who prefer them.

Q. If one decides to pay an unexpected call on a friend and finds, upon arriving, that the friend already has a guest, what should one do?

A. Remain only for a few minutes, exchange a few pleasantries, and then leave.

Q. Is it obligatory to send a wedding gift when one is invited only to the ceremony, and not to the reception?

A. No.

Q. Is it correct for a man to use the title "Mr." on his business cards?

A. No. Only such titles as "Rev." or "Dr." are permissible.

In the picture above are Cheryl Corts and her mother, Mrs. William Corts. Cheryl is one of the blind children who will attend the new Wheeling Braille school at Wheeling this fall. She is only three years old, but is old enough to attend the school and learn to read Braille and other equipment a blind child must learn. She will not be able to attend other classes with those who can see because she is not of public school age.

The cause of Cheryl's blindness was due to premature birth. There is nothing that can be done to bring sight into her eyes.

Mrs. Corts, a member of the Blind Parents association, has done much in organizing the Wheeling Braille school. She will speak at the Junior Woman's Club of Des Plaines garden tea Sunday, the Edison Park Junior Woman's club meeting Monday and at Arlington Heights Junior Woman's club meeting at Mount Prospect village hall, Tuesday.

"Darkness Visible" will be the title of her talk to the junior clubs. This will be the story of her daughter, the problems and difficulties a parent has in raising a blind child in the home and in school. She will also discuss Wheeling Braille school, what it hopes to accomplish and explain new theories and systems for teaching the blind.

To help Wheeling Braille school financially, the seventh district junior clubs will have a benefit dance, "Autumn Sights" October 1. The benefit will be held at Medinah Country club from 9:30 p.m. to 12:30 a.m. Dancing will be to the music of Rags Ragland and his band from Northwestern university.

Materials made by the Junior Red Cross girls and boys are packed in a large carton and are sent to one of the veterans administration hospitals in the Chicago area. The box contains enough materials for a complete party for one patient ward, and includes party hats and decorations, favors, games and game prizes, tray mats and nut cups.
